

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.		Page No.
4.1	Sexwise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents from SC, ST, OBC and General Category	78
4.2	Place of residencewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents from SC, ST, OBC and general category	80
4.3	Occupationwise frequency and percentage distribution of parents of SC, ST, OBC and general category respondents	81
4.4	Education levelwise frequency and percentage distribution of parents of SC, ST and OBC and general category respondents	84
4.5	Nature of Residencewise frequency and percentage distribution of parents of SC, ST, OBC and general categories respondents	87
4.6	Number of siblingswise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents of SC, ST, OBC and general categories	88
4.7	Sufficiency of bookwise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents from SC, ST and OBC and general categories	90
4.8	Opinion on availability of bookwise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents from SC, ST and OBC and general categories	91
4.9	Opinion on adequacy of borrowing time of library books. (Castewise responses in frequency and percentage)	92

Table No.		Page No.
4.10	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about utilisation of different libraries	93
4.11	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the opinion on availability of text books in Gujarati	94
4.12	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the type of co-operation rendered by their library staff	96
4.13	Castewise frequency distribution of respondents' suggestions about the improvement of existing facilities in their college library	98
4.14	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the mode of conveyance used to cover the distance between college and home	100
4.15	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the opinion on the adverse effect of the distance between their homes and college	101
4.16	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the opinion on the adverse effect of the domestic work performed by them on their study	102
4.17	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about availability of their separate study rooms	103
4.18	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about their admission problems	104

Table No.		Page No.
4.19	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about their adjustment problems regarding hostel food	106
4.20	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about their adjustment problems regarding sharing of common facilities in hostels	107
4.21	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the person who helped them to solve the hostel problems	108
4.22	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion about the adverse effect of the distance between hostel and college	110
4.23	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion on the item food and accommodation facility in the hostel are satisfactory	111
4.24	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about their medium of instruction at school	113
4.25	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion on English as medium of instruction creating problems for understanding	114
4.26	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents taking help from different sources in case of language problems	116
4.27	Castewise distribution of suitability of teaching methods	117

Table No.		Page No.
4.28	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the reasons of non-participation in the class-room discussion	119
4.29	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the type of encouragement they receive in the class from teachers	121
4.30	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion about assistance of the teachers offered in solving their academic problems	122
4.31	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion about the language problem in understanding the instructions given before practicals	124
4.32	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the sources of help taken to solve the language problem at the time of practicals	125
4.33	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the sources of help taken to solve the problems, other than language, at the time of practicals	126
4.34	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion about the co-operation rendered by teachers and class-mates in carrying out their practicals	127
4.35	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents' opinion about the justice given in evaluation	128

Table No.		Page No.
4.36	Castewise frequency and percentage distribution of respondents about the problems they face during practicals	129
4.37	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents' opinion on the item "Do you get scholarship?"	131
4.38	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents' reason for not getting scholarship	132
4.39	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents' opinion on raising of income limit for giving scholarship	133
4.40	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents' opinion on the item "Do you get scholarship every month?"	134
4.41	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents on the item " When do you receive scholarship?"	134
4.42	Frequency and percentage distribution of SC, ST & OBC respondents on the item "How would you use scholarship, if given monthly" ?	135
4.43	Yearwise frequency and percentage distribution of stagnation among final year ST, SC, OBC and general category students	138