

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The past three and a half years of research feel to me like a voyage and my passage was enlightened by the guidance and supports of many people. It is now that I have the opportunity to express my gratitude towards them. First and foremost, I offer my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to my guru, Dr. G. S. Grewal, Dy. Director and Head of Materials Technology Division, Electrical Research & Development Association (ERDA) for his valuable guidance, motivation and encouragement. My Ph. D. work would not have been possible without his constant support, helpful discussions and valuable comments. I was fortunate enough to avail all resources of his genial inspiration and enthusiastic encouragement throughout the course of my work. I always will admire the training given by him, which has helped me to achieve my desired goal.

My special thanks to my supervisor, Dr. V. Shrinet, for his invaluable guidance and encouragement throughout this journey. I am indebted to him not only for introducing the objective of this work to me, but also for his encouragements and faith in me, which enabled me to solve the problems encountered during the various stages of my work. I am also grateful to him for his helpful discussions, with my experimental work.

I express my immense gratitude to my co-supervisor, Prof. N. L. Singh, for his invaluable guidance, motivation and encouragement, during my Ph. D. work. I have benefited a lot from his expertise as well as from his suggestions on general research matters. I learnt how to write good research papers from him.

I am deeply grateful and thankful to Shri T. P. Govindan, Director – Electrical Research & Development Association (ERDA) for giving me good opportunity to work in this esteemed organization and for his constant encouragement. I am grateful to ERDA management for supporting this work.

I truly believe that my work would have been impossible without the suggestions, help and co-operation of my companions of the voyage, my lab-mates. The help rendered by Mr. J. P. Sheth, Sr. Scientist, Electrical Research & Development Association (ERDA) is thankfully acknowledged for his valuable guidance, motivation and encouragement. I learnt many characterization tools (SEM, EDS and XRD) from him, which were most useful during my Ph. D. work. Without his valuable suggestions and tips, I would have never achieved my desired goal. I am also grateful to Dr. V. Patel, Mr. J. Varughese and Mr. N. Patel for DSC analysis and interpretation. I thank to Mr. K. D. Chudasma, Mr. U.

N. Puntambekar, Mrs. S. Sheth, Dr. H. Vyas, Dr. K. Shah and Mr. P. Rathod for their extending help and suggestions. Later in the voyage, Nirav, Priya, Ishwar, Sunil, Hemang, Kiranpal, Brijesh, and Amit all joined me and made it unforgettable by their goodwill. They supported me by all means, as teachers, friends and philosophers. I would also like to express my thanks to non-technical staff members of the ERDA family for extending help to me from time to time.

I am also grateful to Ministry of New & Renewable Energy (MNRE), Government of India for funding this work under grant number 103/112/2008–NT.

I thank Prof. A. C. Sharma, Head of the Physics Department and Prof. Nikhil Desai, Dean of the Faculty of Science, for providing me the opportunity to pursue my Ph. D. degree. I also thank all the teachers of Physics Department for their support during this work. I thank my seniors Dolly, Chaitali, Sangeeta, Prashant, Nikit, Devang, Gaurav, and Dharamendra for their constant encouragement and suggestions. I would also like to express my thanks to the non-teaching staff members of the department.

I wish to express my gratitude to some of the teachers who have always been an inspiring force in my life: Raju Sir, Bhatnagar Sir, Upadhyay Sir, Mehta Sir, Kirit Lard Sir, Sutariya Sir, Dodia Sir, Dipika Mam, Ravaji Sir, and Trivedi Sir. Friends are a treasure and I am very fortunate to have this wonderful wealth in my life. Gopal, Pratik, Mehul, Viru, Rajesh Gohil, Rajesh Patel, Darshan, Keyur, Jaimin Rai, and many more, who directly or indirectly contributed in making my voyage smooth.

I am indebted to my parents: Shri Gopabhai and Mrs. Jayaben, and my grandmother Rakhuben, whose limitless love and affection has made my world beautiful place. I am short of words for expressing my gratitude to my brothers Jagdish and Ramesh, and my sister-in-law, Smt. Ranjan and entire family for their wishes and constant support. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my wife, Smt. Bharti for their unflagging patience, love and constant support. Thank you all....for being with me.
