Sl. No.	Tables	Page No
1.1	Development of Sub-Skills	26
3.1	Details of the Observation of Students in 20 Days	66
3.2	Research Design	83
3.3	Teaching Learning Activities in both the Experimental and Control Groups	84
4.1	Desirable Behavioral Engagement as Observed	99
4.2	Undesirable Behavioral Engagement as Observed.	100
4.3	Analysis of Group Discussion with the Subject Teachers	104
4.4	Dimensions of Affective Domain Identified	115
4.5	Details of the Cognitive and Affective Domains Integrated as per Units	124
4.6	Raw Scores of Grade VII E Students, Experimental Group	130
4.7	Raw Scores of Grade VII F Students, Control Group	131
4.8	Scores of Pretest (Affective Domain) of Both the Groups under Study	132
4.9	Mann Whitney “U” test for Attitude Development	133
4.10	Comparison of Pre-Test-Post Test Attitude scores (Experimental and Control Group) Independent-Samples Mann-Whitney U Test	133
4.11	Summary of Mann Whitney U test for Development of Emotion	134
4.12	Comparison of Pre Test-Post Test scores of Emotion (Experimental and Control Group) Independent-Samples Mann-Whitney U Test	135
4.13	Summary of Mann Whitney U test for Development of Interest	136
4.14	Comparison of Pre Test-Post Test scores of Interest (Experimental and Control Group) Independent-Samples Mann-Whitney U Test	136
4.15	Summary of Mann Whitney U test for Value Development	138
4.16	Comparison of Pre test-Post test Value Data (Experimental and Control Group)	138
4.17	Summary of Mann Whitney U test for Development of Socialization	139
4.18	Comparison of Pre-test-Post-test Socialization Data (Experimental and Control Group)	140
4.19	Summary of Mann Whitney U test for Development of Socialization	141
4.20	Comparison of Pretest-Posttest Overall Affective Domain Data (Experimental and Control Group)	141
4.21	Mann Whitney U Test on Pre-Test, Post-Test Scores of Cognitive Domain	143
4.22	Summary of Mann Whitney U Test for Cognitive Domain	144
4.23	Results from the Mann-Whitney U-test	144
4.24	Teachers Response for the Students of Experimental Group	146
4.25	Researcher’s Observation during the Implementation of t Programme	154
4.26	Positive Behavioral Engagement during Classroom Interactions	155
4.27	Negative Behavioral Engagement during Classroom Interaction	156
6.1	Research Design	178
