

Contents

Preface	i - v
Introduction	1 - 25
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Concerns and Values</li><li>• Search for authenticity</li><li>• The Madras School of Arts and Crafts</li><li>• Towards Regional Definition</li></ul>
Chapter I: Cultural Politics and Colonial Pedagogy in the making of the Art School.	26 - 52
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Ideological thrust in Art Education</li><li>• Establishment of Art Schools</li><li>• Madras School of Arts and Crafts</li><li>• The Curriculum</li><li>• Craft over Art</li><li>• D.P. Roy Chowdhary and the curriculum reform – From Craft to Art</li><li>• The Madras Art Movement and the crucial role of the Government College of Arts and Crafts.</li></ul>
Chapter II: Negotiating the Self: In Quest of Identity	53 - 77
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• National Modern Aesthetics: Early twentieth century to political freedom [1947]</li><li>• The Madras Art Movement: Defining the Regional Modern</li><li>• Tradition: Form and content</li><li>• Ambivalence of Tradition and Modernity</li><li>• The Southern Posture: The Binaries of Center and Periphery</li></ul>
Chapter III: The Decade of 60s: K.C.S. Paniker and the Madras Art Movement	78 - 119
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• K.C.S. Paniker: An influential teacher</li><li>• Anthropomorphic explorations and technical mediations</li><li>• Paniker and his definition of nativism</li><li>• Abstraction: The Indian dimension</li></ul>

- Words and Symbol Series
- The birth of Cholamandal Artist Village
- Cholamandal Artist Village: A critique
- Cholamandal Today

Chapter IV: The Lineage of Abstraction within the Madras Art Movement: 60s and 70s

120 - 193

- R. Krishna Rao: Empirical expressions
- H.V. Ram Gopal: Expressionist visionary
- Abstraction the Madras experience
- L. Munuswamy: Gestural abstraction
- Neo Tantric art: Significant cultural identity
- K.V. Haridasan: Pioneer from the South
- V. Viswanathan: Minimal intrepid geometry
- K.M. Adimoola: Versatile line and Poetic naturesscapes
- P. Gopinath: Structured colours and Planar forms
- Achuthan Kudallur: Trigonometry of shapes and colours
- Rm. Palaniappan: A cerebral Voyage

Chapter V: The Human body as a Dominant Trope:
Art in the 60s and 70s

194 - 292

- Epistemological dimensions of folk art
- J. Sultan Ali: A philosophic artistic journey
- K. Sreenivasulu: Conflation of rural sensibility with modern approach
- M. Redappa Naidu: Cultural politics and modernity
- A.P. Santhanaraj: Numinous space and human imagery
- C.J. Anthony Doss: Journey from indigenism to academic realism
- K. Ramanujam: Surrealist imagery
- Alphonso Arul Doss: Light as form
- R.B. Bhaskaran: Concepts as pictorial organizers
- S.G. Vasudev: Mediation through literary imagery
- C. Douglas and K. Muralidharan
- Women Artists within the Madras Art Movement

Conclusion

293 - 308

Bibliography