

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to my guide Dr.D.C. Joshi, Reader, Centre of Advanced Study in Education for his unstinting guidance, aid and special concern in planning and carrying through this investigation. The patience that he has shown and the encouragement that he has given, has been more than what a Guru could have been in the ancient Gurukulas. I always found him ready for academic discussions. Neither did he spare me from critical and analytical thinking, nor did he spare himself from any effort to make my study as objective as possible. My words of thanks fall short of my feelings.

I appreciate all possible co-operations extended by the Heads, teachers and students of the ten universities for conducting this study.

It is my privilege to have had encouragement and help from Prof. D.B. Desai, Dean and Head of the Faculty and CASE in different ways at different times.

I express my gratitude to the authorities of the U.G.C. and CASE for awarding me the Teacher Fellowship which facilitated this research work.

Md. A. Hye, Principal, A.D.P. College, Nowgong, Assam deserves special grateful note for granting me leave for this period of study.

My thanks are due to Mrs.Sarojben Padhye, the ever helpful librarian of CASE.

Words fail me to express my feelings towards my parents who have always encouraged me to further my education.

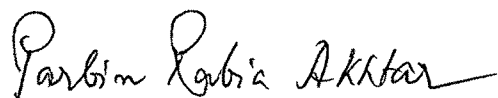

With all appreciation I remember the help of my friends Soran Singh, Sulekha Patankar and Vardhini at different stages of my study.

Most grateful thanks should go to Shri B.D.Mistry for his personal interest and care in typing the thesis.

Finally, this is my privilege to extend my admiration, appreciation and deepest feelings to my husband, Syed Hassan Ullah for his constant encouragement, inspiration, sacrifice and sharing inconvenience caused during the research work.

I thank all my friends who have extended their help in this study in one way or the other.
