

Acknowledgements

Completion of my doctoral thesis was only possible with the help and encouragement by numerous people. I do not have words to thank them enough.

I am extremely grateful to my mentor and guide, Dr. Madhu Sharan, Professor and Head at the Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. Her valuable guidance, constant support, constructive feedback and pervasive encouragement kept me motivated in difficult times. The right balance of freedom to explore and being able to critically discuss research approaches with her had multiplied my learnings tenfold. I am truly indebted to her!

I would extend my sincere thanks to Prof. Anjali Karolia, Dean, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for her critical and meaningful feedbacks. Her shared insights and suggestions on my research work has been truly stimulating. It was a delight to be her student and work under her for several projects as part of the fellowship programme. Her guidance and firm approach has always been the motivating factor for me to learn and grow.

The faculty members at the Institute have been really kind to extend their support and guidance whenever approached and I do hereby acknowledge all of them. I am also thankful to Davebhai and Naineshbhai for their prompt support and guidance at the time of need.

I am grateful to all my respondents, especially to Shri Govidbhai Makwana and Shri Rameshbhai Chavda. Shri Ishwarbhai Nangesh, deserves a special mention for being extremely generous and helping me network with various sects of Rabaris across Gujarat. I would also like to extend my sincere gratitude to Shri Vishramji Valji. Shri. Dahyabhai Kudecha, Mr. Yogin Chauhan, Mr. A.A. Wazir and other respondents for providing me with their priceless samples and time required for the progression of my work. Kalaraksha for allowing me to access samples in the museum and Mr. Paresh Patel from Khamir for putting me in touch with numerous valuable contacts.

I would like to extend special thanks to the weavers at the Weaver's Service Centre, Ahmedabad for being amiable and supportive as and when approached.

I feel fortunate to have received humungous support and encouragement from my friends, Madhuri, Vandita, Nidhi and Shyam, all through the course of my study. Their willingness to accompany during the field study despite of the busy schedule owes more than I can mention. I am also thankful to Aqib for his meticulous work and efforts to deliver desired sketches for this research.

Sukriti didi, Jennifer, Vibha, Arpita and Ankita have all extended their valuable support through their personal and scholarly interactions.

Dr. Gayatri Menon, Sr. Faculty at the National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad deserves a special mention for grooming my intellect as part of the Design Teachers' Development Programme at NID, Ahmedabad.

I would like to thank my parents, for their immeasurable amount of support, care and encouragement. This work owes more to them than I can say. Their unflinching faith, efforts and love till the end made me materialize this work. My sister, Kshiteeja, for her patience, time, invaluable assistance and efforts. She has been the pillar of my strength all throughout the study. Deep and Akshay for their efforts, love and care. Lastly, to my husband, Aman, for his unrelenting moral support, faith and encouragement.

.

Shruti Tomar

PhD Scholar