

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have had the opportunity and pleasure to work with number of people during this research work and so deserve a special mention. It is my pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all.

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Prof. (Dr.) Madhu Sharan, Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for her patience, supervision, advice, immense knowledge, continuous support and encouragement. The work would have not been possible to come to the present shape without her able guidance. I offer my sincere appreciation for the learning opportunities provided by her who continue moulding me at every stage. I feel honoured to work under her guidance.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to my co-guide Prof. (Dr.) D.P.Chattopadhyay, Ex-Head, Department of Textile Chemistry, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for his advice and supervision, which is like the backbone of this research and this thesis. His intellectual maturity, patient co-operation, valuable and timely suggestions, his faith in me, and the space given to me to work , makes me feel honoured to work under his able guidance.

I am grateful to Prof. Anjali Karolia, Ex-Head, Department of Clothing and Textiles, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for her constant support, encouragement, suggestions whenever needed and for facilitating my study by extending all the departmental facilities required.

I would like to express my gratitude to all my teachers Prof. Amita Pandya, Ms. Vandana Chauhan, Dr. Reena Bhatia, Dr. Hemlata Raval, and Dr. Falguni Patel, Dr. Rajni Yadav who put their faith in me and urged me to do better. They have been a great help at required time.

I am grateful to Reliance Jute mills, Kolkatta for providing my jute fabric for my pilot work. I am highly indebted to Dr. A.K.Samatha, Department of Jute and Allied Fibres, University of Calcutta, Kolkatta for kindly sponsoring the final jute fabric for the study.

I am highly indebted to Mr. Alkesh Darji, Textile Research & Application Development Centre. TRADC, for the processing of the final jute fabric to be used for construction of jackets. He and his subordinate Ms. Richanjana had been an immense support for carrying out the work smoothly. It was indeed pleasure and learning experience working with the them.

I would like to express my gratitude to Prof D. K. Kanchan, Department of Physics, Faculty of Science, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for FTIR test and also for helping and supporting for patent application.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. D.P.Chattopadyay, Ex-Head of the Department of Textile Chemistry, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for extending laboratory facilities. Several test and especially Spectrophotometric analysis which was very frequently conducted and for long time was only possible with the kind cooperation of Jayminbhai.

A earnest expression of gratitude to Dr. Bharat Patel, Department of Textile Chemistry, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for his support for sharing his knowledge about natural dyes and also helped in understanding the natural dyes.

I am also grateful to Prof. (Dr.) S.K. Dutta (Ex. Head), Prof. M.N. Patel and Dr. Vandana Rao, expertise of SEM from the Department of Metallurgical and Material Engineering, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for conducting SEM.

Sincere thanks are expressed to the faculty and the technical staff of Clothing and Textile Department. I am thankful to Dave bhai, especially for all the paper work he had helped with, Naynesh bhai, Sanjay bhai, Nishant bahi and Dilip bhai for always being enthusiastic about working in Laboratory. A special thanks to Pratik bhai, for helping me with computers whenever required. Thanks are also due to Sachin bhai, Ela ben, Kaplia ben, Santosh bhai and Harish bhai.

A big thanks to my friends Amritadi, Jennifer, Arpita, Ankita, Chhavi, Vandita, Shaleeni, Priyanka, Rinku, and all my friends for always being their whenever I needed their help and company. They all had been supportive, motivating and fun filling.

I am heartily thankful to my husband Hiren, for his constant support, since the time I have been married. A special thanks to Shourya for helping and understanding me so much knowing and unknowingly.

The most important people are my parents, who deserve a special mention for unconditional encouragement and support. I feel thankful to my entire family, who has always been supportive. Last but never the least; I am enormously thankful to my Maa, Baba, Shouvik, Bena and Menakshi kakima for their love and support.

Above all I thank Almighty God for his blessings
