

Acknowledgement

“Failure is an option here. If things are not failing, you are not innovating enough”.

~ Elon Musk

Oh, what a roller coaster ride it has been!

This ride of my research would not have been possible without the blessings of the Almighty and his greatness to shower upon me with a bunch of helpful, loving and caring people around.

I would like to extend my deep gratitude to my mentor and guide Prof. Mini Sheth for her constant support and motivation so that I maintain my track and accomplish my goal and never lose hope and patience. I am blessed to have a guide like her who has always been very generous and affectionate. I thank her from the bottom of my heart for enriching and enlightening me with all the best possible ways.

I convey special acknowledgement to Prof. Uma Iyer for the trust she has on me which I felt constantly. Her brilliant ideas, unceasing scientific quest and balanced personality never cease to amaze me. The departmental coursework under her was an amazing flavour enhancer to my journey. It enriched me with diverse ideas and knowledge.

I convey my special thanks to Prof. Meenakshi Mehan for providing me the necessary facilities and help to carry out my research work.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Dept. of Foods and Nutrition for their gentle and supporting behaviour. A special thanks to Milind Sir and Mayurbhai for being extremely helpful with any paperwork at the University level.

I would like to leave an echo, whispering softly to my parents for supporting me throughout and for lifting my spirit whenever I hit rock bottom. This piece of work would not have been possible without their unconditional love and support.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Sriram Seshadri (Assistant Professor, Nirma University) and Dr. Sweta Patel for their advice, supervision, support and an important contribution by allowing me to conduct the second phase of my study in their departmental lab.

I extend my warm hugs and love to Ricky and Mee (Bina Barua) for lending me their constant ear and immense support throughout this ride and for being my great pillars of support. Words are never enough to express how grateful I am to you both.

Finding friends with the same mental disorder is priceless! They are hard to find but lucky to have. I am extremely lucky to have earned such amazingly crazy friends who were my support system throughout this ride. Without them, I am sure I would have quit this ride in midways. A big shout out to Raj, Shruti, Yamee, Abhishek, Alem, Deb, Debesh, Nima, Harsh and Subhadeep for constantly being there for me. You guys made this journey seem short and definitely very colourful.

Special love and thanks from the core of my heart to Tanu di for playing multiple roles in this ride of mine. From playing the role of an amazing statistician so that I can analyze my data well till the role of an amazing sister and buddy. Thanks for always making me feel special.

Lastly, I would like to thank everybody who on the silver screen and green room of my life helped me to complete my PhD research work.

~Abnita Thakuria.