Life is a journey and learning is a never ending process. Infact, there's no age for learning. When I decided to get into PhD, everyone around me kept on asking, "Why at this age and How much are you going to study?" Though I was not that too old when I joined, but you all know how typical Indian mind set is !!!

I have no words to express my feelings toward my innocent son, my soul, Jaiaditya Asudani. He was only four years old when I started PhD. Though being a kid he had immense sense of maturity and understanding. Unlike other kids he never played tantrums and there were days when he even had stayed alone at home, when I had to finish my data collection.

I offer my sincere gratitude to my guide, Dr. Mini Sheth, "Visionary by profession and a cheerful kind soul full of positivity and love", who supported me throughout my PhD with her patience and knowledge and kept motivating and pushing to complete my work at pace. She is one of the friendly mentors I have ever worked with. I attribute the level of my doctoral dissertation to her encouragement and effort and without her this thesis would not have been accomplished. Thank you for being so patient with me and teaching me to be calm and to ignore the irrelevant matters in and around the working environment. Thank you Ma'am once again for being a wonderful guide.

The most valuable people in my life who supported my decision are my Mother Ms. Shanta Raimalani, My Father Dr. Mohan Raimalani and my husband Mr. Dinesh Assudani. My mother, since my childhood kept on saying one thing, "I never got an opportunity for higher studies, but I want you to be doctor like your father", but I was never inclined towards studies and the thought got subsided in mind till I met my husband. He is the one who motivated and guided me to pursue my career and stood like a hard rock against all odds. I wouldn't have achieved anything in my life if these two people wouldn't have been my backbone. Today there's no limit to my pleasure that I am fulfilling my mother's dream and this wouldn't have been possible without my husband who is like a blessing in my life.

A very special thanks to my Kiddo Sissi Varsha Raimalani who helped me clear PET exam, which was not possible without her. Throughout my journey of PhD she was my stress buster and I will always cherish her rides on Aactiva and Panipuri treats !!!!!

I express my warm thanks to Prof. Meenakshi Mehan, our head of the department and my M Sc. Guide, for her constant encouragement and concern. She is the one who actually taught real dietetics, guided me through my post graduation and now will be signing my Doctoral thesis. What more can one ask for !!!!!

I take the opportunity for special thanks to our former dean of the faculty and former head of the department, Prof. Uma Iyer under whose auspicious presence I got the opportunity to join the Department. She was always there as a supporting pillar in the Department.

Special thanks to Mr. Bhushan Lakhia, cluster head, HDFC Bank for such a wonderful support provided throughout the long tenure of data collection, which went smoothly and accurately.

Special thanks to Mr. Sylvester Simon, cluster head, ICICI bank for working along with me to organizing and scheduling camps, sending emails, coordinating etc....and providing never ending support.

A very sincere "Thanks!" out to all employees especially of HDFC and ICICI bank who participated very sincerely as volunteers in my study and referred as "Subjects" in scientific term, which they hated to be called as .....LOL

My earnest thanks to my lovely besities Meenu Somvanshi and Kuhu Roy. Their company always made me feel light and full of laughter and giggles. Girls if you are reading this I really miss those days. I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to my buddies for giving ideas for improvement, for giving me lessons on life and making me feel proud of my work, for showing their concern and remembering me so often and not letting me feel lonely.

This note of thanks would be incomplete without the mention of my friend, research co-worker, partner-in-crime, Nidhi Jain. She is very lively and jovial person. We worked together and she taught me how to work smartly, I learned lot of practical life lessons and ways of dealing with people. Thank you for all the fun we had in the last four years and specially enjoying “Manoj bhai ki chai in our PhD den”.

I would like to acknowledge the financial support from the Department of Biotechnology, New Delhi (DBT) for partially funding my study.

Thanks a lot to all my PhD fellows and colleagues at the department, Neha Gupta, Pawan Kumar Thakur, Shweta Patel, Shruti Kantawala, Arti Muley, Mittal, Shriya Sekseria, Tanu Shree Singh, Pooja Gaur, Vijayata di, Kanchi and Swati parnami for their chit-chat sessions along with super tasty meals and hot tea. Thanks a lot for being wonderful companions.

Furthermore, I would also like to acknowledge with much appreciation the crucial role of non teaching staff members, Minakshi ben, Kirit bhai, Mangal bhai, Vinod bhai, Ranjan ben, Manoj bhai and pravin bhai of the Department of Foods and Nutrition who helped throughout my doctoral work.

.Finally, my thanks goes to all the people who have supported me directly or indirectly to complete my research work.

Heartfelt thanks to all of you

With Love Always...

Aparna Assudani
