

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I thank Almighty God for His blessings, strength, and courage to complete this work. I would like to express my gratefulness to the Dean of the Faculty Prof. R. G. Kothari, for providing me with the necessary institutional support and guidance throughout the period of the study.

My deepest gratitude is to my research guide Prof. K. Pushpanadham. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and constant encouragement. I have been amazingly fortunate to have a mentor like him who gave me the freedom to explore ideas on my own and at the same time guided me constantly to recover when my steps faltered. He taught me how to question thoughts of others, express one's own ideas and engage in theory building. His intelligent insights, rich background and experience in Educational Administration and International teaching became an invaluable resource that provided high caliber academic direction. I am surely indebted to Professor K. Pushpanadham.

I express my gratitude to the Head of the Department, Prof. N. Pradhan, as I was so fortunate to have learnt so much from his cordial but rigorous professional conduct that characterizes his commitment and meticulous way of working that he exhibits. To me he always proved to be a role model and taught invaluable lessons.

I am thankful to Dr. Milind Sahasrabuddhe for all his support and motivation and deeply grateful to Dr. Rashmin Sompura from the Department of Psychology, M.S University of Baroda for his expert opinions and inputs so generously.

I am deeply touched with the sense of concern and help from my friends, Dr. Adfar Shah, from JMI, New Delhi, Dr. Dayananda from NIE Maharagama, Srilanka and Mr. Jason Mammon Research Scholar M.S. Univeristy of Baroda for their tireless support, encouragement, insightful comments, constructive criticism and proof reading.

I would also like to thank and gratefully acknowledge the School Management and staff of all the sample schools for their cooperation and support during my field work. The role played by the Principals in making necessary arrangements to conduct the study is highly appreciated.

Finally, I am deeply grateful to my father Mr. A. N. Sindhi and mother (late) Mrs. Salma Sindhi who provided me the tireless support. Their blessings, constant motivation and encouragement helped me to carry out this research work. I am thankful to my sister (Sabiha) and both my brothers (Anis & Ayaz) who were a great moral support and assisted me in every way throughout this research.
