

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to acknowledge my deepest gratitude to the faculty of Education and Psychology for all the support and care. All three departments, Education (CASE), Educational Administration and Psychology enhanced my knowledge and abilities of research in Education.

I am using this opportunity to express gratefulness for wonderful people around, who encouraged me in every phase of Ph.D. and those who believed in me.

It's my pleasure to extend my gratitude to my beloved guide Prof. R. C. Patel, Head Department of Education (CASE), Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda who has been my 'Guru' as well, a Father figure for me, under whom I completed this journey of enlightenment. He has always believed in me and has inspired me for diligent work. He carved the ability "to do the best" within me. His perfectionism and multitasking ability has always inspired me. Present study could not have been completed without his guidance, intellectual advice, moral support and encouragement. His full faith in me has brought me where I am today. I am very happy to inscribe this page of acknowledgement, and I owe a warm thanks to you sir.

My deepest gratitude extended to my parents especially my mother who is always loving, supporting, motivating, worrying about my health and food. Her unshakeable confidence in me throughout my life has kept me going. I lost faith in me many times but she never did. She has always been on my side one call away from me motivating me and encouraging me. I also am thankful to my father for making me what I am today. He has been like a wall, rock solid for me. Without their motivation this dream would have never been fulfilled. I am thankful to my Mother in law whose push & constant follow up made me do my work and My Father in law with whom I have enjoyed several meaningful discussions. Last but the most important person in my life, my husband, Mr. Harshvardhan Hada. I have no words to express my gratitude to God for bringing him in my life as my life partner. He really acted as my partner in every task. He Paved different ways for me, overcame several hurdles for me, reduced his social life for me to finish my Ph. D.
