

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people and institutions have been of immense support during the pursuit of my PhD research. First and foremost, I would like to thank my research supervisor, Prof. Ambika Bipin Patel for her advice and her encouragement and most importantly for allowing me to grow as a researcher. Her constant encouragement towards the need for academically incisive approaches by integrating diverse methodological skills motivated me to undertake such a research.

The University Grants Commission is gratefully acknowledged for providing me a fellowship for a period of two years in the pursuit of this research.

The support of my family has been crucial part of all my accomplishments. I cannot put into words my gratitude to my parents especially my greatest motivation my mother, Mrs. Rajni Chawla and my brothers Mr. Harshvardhan Chawla and Jai Chawla, and my aunt, Mrs. Kamini Asija, who were constant support throughout my journey of research.

I am also indebted to the teaching and non-teaching faculty of the Department of Archaeology and Ancient History, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their constant support during the pursuit of my PhD. I wish to thank Prof. K. Krishnan, Prof. P. Ajithprasad, Prof. V.H. Sonawane, Prof. Kuldeep Bhan, Dr. Preeti Panjwani, Dr. S. Prathapchandran, Dr. Sushmita Sen and Frank Herman for their support and encouragement during the tenure of the PhD. Mr. Bhupesh Pathak, Mr. Ibrahim Shaikh (Lalabhai), Mr. Anil Rathore, Mr. Vinay Bhatt and Mr. Mahesh Vaghela deserve special mention for supporting me in finding relevant literature and processing of official paperwork during my stay at Vadodara. In addition, I express my gratitude to Mr. Chirag Bhatt, GCU section, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda who has been extremely helpful in the timely processing of the bills submitted to his office.

I am indebted to Mr. Rajesh Purohit, Director of Allahabad Museum, for allowing me to conduct field work at the museum. The staff of Allahabad museum was equally supportive and motivating throughout my study. I wish to thank Mr. D. Rama Sarma, Director of National Science Centre, New Delhi, for permitting me to conduct field work at the organisation. I wish to thank museums' staff who supported me during my field work all over India.

The support of my friends and seniors has been a crucial part of all my accomplishments. My heartfelt thanks to Dr. Nidhi Shendurnikar, Dr. Minasree Saikia, Dr. Bhakti Gala, Dr. Rajesh S.V. who had been kind support during my research. As always being my extended family and support I wish to thank Dr. Urmi Ghosh Biswas, Dr. Priyanka Kacker, Dr. Aprajita Sharma, Ms. Rajalakshmi Karakulam, Ms. Joyoti Roy, Ms. Namita Malik and Mr. Rajesh Prasad, Dr. Banani Bhattacharyya, Apurwa, Juhi Kyal, Arti, Shruti Sharma, Shubham Malik, Devara Anil Kumar, Tanumoy and Pranjal Garg.

I had gained practical experiences at National museum, New Delhi that enabled me to grow as a researcher. I wish to thank the Director Dr. B.R Mani, and staff Dr. V.K. Mathur, Dr. Anamika Pathak. Mr. Manuel Joseph, Dr. Arvind Rautela, Dr. Mohan Pratap, Ms. Rige Shiba and museum volunteers.

I was lucky to receive the International Training Program (2018) fellowship sponsored by British Museum, London. This was a great opportunity to gather ideas and experiences that were to add to my research outputs. I wish to thank Mr. Hartwig Fischer, Claire Messenger, Daniela De Simone, Rebecca Horton, Jessica Juckes, Dilek Sener, Amalia G Kakissis, Sarah Gore and Andrea.

I am thankful to Department of Archaeology and Museums, Haryana that gave me permission to devote time for final thesis works. I wish to thank Mr. Darbar Singh and Mr. Ravikant who supported me in getting practical exposure of archaeological collections at department. If I have left anyone out, I sincerely apologize, but know that my thanks go out to them as well.
