

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to devote this thesis to my Kuldevima (Shri Bijasan Mataji-Mahakali Mataji), Sadguruji (Shri Narbheram Maharaj) and Gurujies (Smt. Sarawatiben Ajmeri (Mother), Shri Mahendrbhai Ajmeri (Father)) for nurturing values, principles, and tatva gyanam since childhood with a lot of positive grace that helps me in building core character competence.

I would like to dedicate this thesis to my loving – Smt. Jamnaben Ajmeri (Grandmother), Smt. Priyanka Dubey (Wife), Kum. Soham Ajmeri (Son), Smt. Bhavika Shukla (Younger sister), Shri Dharmesh Shukla (Brother In-law), Kum. Arnav Shukla (Nephew) for moral support and motivation. Specifically, my son and wife. My son at the age of 4 years extremely understood that his father has been preoccupied with his work on the computer especially in the last 10 months. He never disturbs me while working on the computer, this increased disturbance-free environment in the home and I worked with more concentration on my research thesis. My wife has tolerated my tension, frustration, anger, and whatnot. She is the person without whom I couldn't have reached my goal of completing doctoral work. I may have left the Ph.D. in between if she had not supported me.

Many people have supported and help with the successful completion of this research. I take this opportunity to sincerely thank one and all who have made this happen.

Firstly, I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my research guide Dr. Leena Mehta, Faculty of Social Work, The M.S. University of Baroda for motivating, encouraging, and guiding me to make my dream come true. She has not been just a teacher for me but also been a mother. She always took care of my health and family when I was with her to study. She was the person who showed faith in me and trusted me that I can research the most challenging police administration when I was in doubt about my potential. I cannot forget the day when she stood beside me in front of the faculty authorities causing an unreasonable delay in my registration, seminar organization processes for a Ph.D. scholar. I cannot repay the time, the energy, and the knowledge which she has poured into me, throughout my life but my everyday prayer will surely have her name.

Secondly, my deepest gratitude goes to the Additional Director General of Police (ADGP-IPS) Shri Anil Prathamji for showing trust and providing me official written permission for researching Anti-Human Trafficking Units (AHTU) of Gujarat State. He understands the need of the study and instructed his good office to circulate an official circular to the Police Commissioners of Gujarat state and requested them to provide cooperation in the interview when the researcher came for the study. This initiative made my data collection procedure easier. Smt. Sunita Jangle (PI) was instructed by Shri Anil Prathamji for support in giving necessary information on AHTU from Gandhinagar, Head Office. I would like to extend my thanks to her as well despite her busy schedule she provided all the necessary information whenever I call.

My research required support from all Anti-Human Trafficking Units functionaries of Gujarat. I am grateful to all the Police commissioners (PC), Assistant Police Commissioners (ACP) Superintendents of Police (SP), Deputy Superintendents of Police (DSP) Police Inspectors (Nodal In-charge), Police Sub Inspectors (PSI), Assistant Sub Inspectors (ASI), Head Constables (HC), Constables, and Lok Rakshak (LR) of Gujarat state. Despite their busy schedule they fully cooperated in the data collection procedure. Many among them openly shared their difficulties and few became emotional while sharing their experience with the researcher. They showed their unconditional support and faith in the researcher.

I would like to thank all fellow research scholars working under Dr. Leena Mehta. They were always willing to help and gave invaluable feedback. Especially Mrs. Sagar Rajput and Mrs. Heli Shukla are like my sisters who helped me in managing seminars certificates. They also recorded suggestions from the external and internal faculties in seminar presentations for me for better thesis improvement.

I would like to thank dean, teachers, and friends at the Institute of Language Studies and Applied Social Sciences (ILSASS) /CVM University. Especially, Dr. Sunny Thomas, Dean of Humanities and Principal of ILSASS. He is very optimistic and made all possible way by removing administrative hurdles at the workplace so that I can focus on my research work. Dr. Mehul Rabari and Dr. Arnav Anjaria constantly motivated me for completing my research work.

Last but not the least; I would like to thank the Dean, Head, and all staff members of the Faculty of Social Work, The M.S. University of Baroda for all the support they provided.

- Mr. Rajkamal M. Ajmeri
