List of Figures

Figure No.	Contents	Page No.
	Chapter I - Introduction
1.	Historical Perspective to Education in India	9
2.	Plans and Policies for Primary Education post Independence	26
3.	Initiatives undertaken at State level to improve status of Primary Education	38
4.	Decadal Literacy Rate of Gujarat (2001-2011)	51
5.	Literacy Rate and Gender Gap in Literacy in Gujarat (1961-2011)	54
6.	A cursory look at emphasis on Primary Education in different Era's	59
7.	A cursory look at milestones in Plans and Programmes related to Primary School Children at the National Level	60
8.	A cursory look at initiatives for Primary School Children at the State Level	61
	Chapter II – Review of Related Literature
9.	Period-wise distribution of trends in literature reviewed over the years	99
10.	Socio Ecological Model of Development	103
11.	Theory of Overlapping Spheres of Influence	104
12.	Theory of Collective Impact	105
13.	Theory of Collaborative Governance	107
	Chapter III: Research Methodology
14.	Levels of Social Work Practice	116
15.	Selection of Plans and Programmes for primary education for the study	121
16.	Plans and Programmes to be studied: At a glance	122
17.	Map of Gujarat State	127
18.	Sampling design at a glance	129
	Chapter IV: Perception of Teachers
19.	Teachers' responses regarding efforts made by schools to promote awareness regarding Government programmes	140
20.	Teachers' responses regarding ensuring Community Participation for Implementation	145
21.	Frequency of School Management Committee Meetings in School	149
22.	Points of discussion in School Management Committee (SMC) meetings	151
23.	Distribution of teachers' responses regarding efforts made by	161

	school to ensure that each child is enrolled
24.	Distribution of teachers' responses regarding the last Parents Teachers Meeting held to discuss the child's progress	167
25.	Distribution of teachers' responses regarding use of Teaching Aids to increase the interest of the children in studies at school	169
26.	Distribution of teachers' responses regarding availability of necessary infrastructure for quality education	172
27.	Frequency and percentage distribution of responses regarding last assessment conducted by Government officials in School	174
28.	Section I - Major findings regarding implementation of Government Plans and Programmes at schools - At a glance	175
29.	Distribution of teachers' perceptions regarding success of various programmes in ensuring hundred percent enrolment- At a glance	187
30.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding increased regularity of children due to Mid Day Meal Programme	195
31.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding increase in the enrolment of children due to Mid Day Meal Programme	197
32.	Distribution of teachers' perceptions regarding improvement in nutrition of children due to Mid Day Meal Programme	200
33.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding improvement in concentration of children due to Mid Day Meal Programme	203
34.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding inculcation of the habit of sharing meals amongst children due to Mid Day Meal Programme	205
35.	Distribution of teachers' perceptions regarding benefits of Mid Day Meal Programme	208
36.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding role of Kanya Kelavani Rath in increasing the gender enrolment ratio	210
37.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding need of Praveshotsav despite Right To Education Act already being implemented	213
38.	Distribution of teachers' perceptions respondents regarding role of Gunotsav in increasing quality of teaching and learning	216
39.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding success of Government plans and programmes in increasing enrolment and retention of students in primary education	219
40.	Section II – Major findings regarding success of government plans and programmes - At a glance	221
41.	Distribution of teachers' perception regarding sufficiency of funds received by the Government in implementation of the programmes	222
42.	Perception of teachers regarding provision of training for proper implementation of the programmes	225
43.	Perception of teachers regarding cluelessness about the deliverables to be provided to the children	228
44.	Perception of teachers regarding problem of unavailability of checklist by the Government to check progress of the implementation	234

45.	Perceptions of teachers regarding problem of no monitoring of the progress of work done	234
46.	Perceptions of teachers regarding problem of materials not being provided on time	237
47.	Perceptions of teachers regarding rigidity of community members for participation in implementation of the programmes	240
48.	Perceptions of teachers regarding difficulty in involving parents in the school activities	243
49.	Section III - Teachers Experiences of Problems faced in Implementation of Government Plans and Programmes for Primary School Children – At a Glance	247
50.	Perception of teachers regarding organization of more awareness campaigns by the Government	248
51.	Perceptions of teachers regarding provision of Role Specific Training	251
52.	Perceptions of teachers regarding distribution of booklets and brochures during campaigns	257
53.	Perceptions of teachers regarding Establishment of transparent communication/interaction channels between parents and the school administration	260
54.	Perceptions of teachers regarding regularizing Teacher Training	264
55.	Section IV - Distribution of responses of Teachers regarding suggestions to Improve Implementation of Plans and Programmes – At a glance	267
56.	Findings at a glance – Perspectives of Teachers	269
	Chapter V – Perception of Parents
57.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding awareness regarding selected Government Plans and Programmes	289
58.	Parents' Views on Benefits of Mid Day Meal Programme	310
59.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding whether Remedial Classes under Gunotsav programme are conducted in school	314
60.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding whether community members were involved in the Praveshotsav Campaign	317
61.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding number of meetings attended in the last twelve months to know the progress of the child	321
62.	Section I – Major findings regarding awareness and implementation of plans and programmes in school at a glance	323
63.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding satisfaction of facilities under Right to Education (RTE) Act	339
64.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding whether No Detention Policy compromises the quality of education	340
65.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding satisfaction with implementation of Right To Education Act by the school	344
66.	Distribution of Parents' perception regarding Satisfaction with	360

	Mid Day Meal Programme
67.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding overall satisfaction with the implementation of Mid Day Meal programme	361
68.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding role of Kanya Kelavani Yojna in motivation of girl child education	363
69.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding benefits of Education programmes- Helped in improvement of three R's	375
70.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding whether schooling has brought about any visible behavioral changes in their child	379
71.	Distribution of parents' responses regarding whether they are happy with their child's progress in school	382
72.	Section II- Major findings regarding perception regarding satisfaction and impact of Government plans and programmes- At a glance	384
73.	Section III – Major findings regarding problems faced- At a glance	389
74.	Section IV- Distribution of parents' responses regarding suggestions to Improve Implementation of Plans and Programmes – At a glance	403
75.	Findings at a glance – Perspectives of Parents	406
76.	Emerging common findings between perception of Teachers and Parents- At a glance	421
	Chapter VI – Major Findings , Discussion, Conclusion and Suggestions
77.	Plans and Programmes launched by the Central Government	425
78.	Plans and Programmes launched by the State Government of Gujarat	426
79.	Overall common findings emerging between perceptions of Teachers and Parents	432
80.	Deliverology: How to think about Implementation	448