

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I kneel down at the feet of my Lord SAI, the Omniscient God, for his everlasting grace and showers of blessings upon me to complete the task of my doctoral thesis for the award of Doctor of Philosophy in Social Work.

I offer my heartfelt thanks to my Research Guide, Prof. (Dr.) Jagdish Solanki, Head of the Department, Faculty of Social Work, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for being a source of inspiration. I am deeply indebted for his intellectual guidance, informative suggestions and enthusiastic encouragement throughout my research work. I am sincerely grateful to your never failing guidance and encouragement. It is with your strong support; the thesis came to a reality.

I express my whole hearted thanks to Prof (Dr.) M.N. Parmar, Dean, Faculty of Social Work, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for providing me an opportunity to undertake this study, guiding me throughout my research. Prof. Parmar inspired me with his excellent leadership and encouragement throughout my research study. I am indebted to you Sir for a lifetime by suggesting me a very true Mentor for my Ph.D. Work who provided wings to my thoughts in the areas of Social Work Research. Thank you for introducing and nurturing me to the Faculty of Social Work under your supportive and democratic leadership.

I am extremely grateful to all teaching staff members – Prof.Chhaya Patel, Prof. Bhavna Mehta, Prof. Ankur Saxena, Prof. Sunita Namiyar and Dr. Leena Mehta for their valuable research inputs and constant encouragement. My sincere gratitude to my colleagues Ms.Divya Vasava, Ms.Hiral Parmar, Dr.Satish Kumar, Dr. Jaya Mahanty, Ms.Nida Faruqui, Ms.Nabila Qureshi, Mr. Dipak Makwana, Ms Jessica Sharma and Ms, Avani Vaghela for helping me in many academic assignments.

I also express my sincere thanks to librarian Shri Dilip Gandhi (Former), Ms.Rupal Shah and Computer Lab In-Charge Mr.Brijesh Bhatt for providing me the best academic weapons of the world. I am greatly privileged to get the timely support and cooperation both from library and computer lab of Faculty of Social Work. Thank you for being amazingly knowledgeable, politely quite but endlessly informative for my doctoral thesis.

I must thank office administrative staff Mr. Madhukar Mahajan, and Mrs. Dipti Sakharikar for their continuous administrative help and moral encouragement.

I am greatly privileged to get the support and guidance from Dr. Vikash Doshi, Associate Professor, Department of Preventive Social Medicine, Baroda Medical College for data analysis and application of various statistical tests. Thank you for your support as it was a great learning to have your perspective and comments with reference to use of Statistics in Social Work Research.

I am greatly honored to get the support from the experts both from academic and microfinance field. I convey my deep sense of gratitude to Prof.(Dr.) N.U.Khan, Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia University, New Delhi, Prof.(Dr.) Sanjai Bhatt, Department of Social Work, Delhi School of Social Work, New Delhi, Prof.(Dr.) H.S.Shylendra, Institute of Rural Management (IRMA), Anand, Prof. Sunil Shukla, Director, EDI, Ahmedabad and Prof. (Dr.)Tara Nair, Gujarat Institute of Development Research, Ahmedabad for encouraging me with their efficient cooperation and valuable inputs.

I convey my deep sense of gratitude to functionaries of NABARD, GLPC, Indian Bank, State Bank of India, Bank of Baroda and Baroda Grameen Bank for providing valuable information regarding SHG-Bank linkages. I am greatly honored to get support from district level functionaries of National Rural Livelihood Mission of Kheda and Narmada district.

I sincerely acknowledge the respondents of this study, in spite of their busy schedule, domestic roles and multi-purpose responsibilities they spent hours with me narrating their experiences of joining microfinance activity and providing me a very useful and relevant information. I offer my appreciation to all the SHG members who have extended their cooperation to give thorough information with patience to frame my research work.

I am thankful to my students Krishna, Meera, Snehal, Neeta and Steffi for helping me with their knowledge of computer literacy in a very quick manner. Each one of you matters not only to me or my thesis but your ideas and abilities can influence the entire world. Thank you for leaving remarkable contribution to my thesis work with your innovative ideas and creative thinking.

My deepest gratitude to my family members especially my mother-in-law and father-in-law who despite bearing all inconveniences and troubles, have encouraged and supported me in every stages of my research work. I have no words to acknowledge the sacrifices both of you made and the dreams you had to let go, just to give me a slot at achieving mine. My very beautiful sister-in-law Jalpa, for understanding my situations of playing multiple roles, it would not have been possible to complete this achievement without your sensitivity and support. Thank you for being such a caring and loving mother angel to my kid. My sincere and heartfelt gratitude for your happy to help attitude and fabulous laugh that always helps in taking me out of all tensions. My sincere thanks to my parents for always treating me as a winner of the world, thanks a ton for being so supportive. My beloved sisters Bhoomika and Seema have motivated me in their own ways and words. Without you both I would not be where I am today. Thank you for your love, affection and unconditional support all the time and in every stage of my life.

I have no words to describe the most important support, unconditional love and invaluable blessings I have received from almighty in the form of my sweet and very cute daughter “Himani” who always becomes my strength. I am at complete loss of conveying my gratitude to my husband Siddharth as you faced maximum hurdles because of my thesis and academic assignments, without a single complain you encouraged me constantly to complete my doctoral degree through your kind words and supportive nature. Thank you for looking after and taking care of our baby so perfectly in my absence. Thank you is a very small word for you Siddharth. I am indebted to you for a life time. Thank you for being a ray of hope during all hurdles.

Arpita Christy, if I ever think about a good friend, your name comes first on the list forever. “N” number of thoughtful things you did for me. So many times unseen, but, one thing is for sure, that I owe a lot to you. Thank you Komal Kantaria, Amisha Pandya, Varsha aunty, Rekha Mishra and Dhvani for always listening to me, supporting and encouraging to complete my thesis.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to all individuals who have directly and indirectly contributed in the study.
