मयैवैते निहता पूर्वमेव निमित्तमात्रम भवः सव्यसाचिनः ॥ श्रीमद् भगवद्गीता ११.३३॥

First of all, I bow down myself in the lotus feet of the omnipotent, the omnipresent, श्रीकृष्ण and माँ राधिकाजी and thank them for making me able to do something good and choosing me as निमित्त for this work. I am grateful to my गुरु श्रीकौशल्यानंदनदासजी, whose blessings have always been with me in every footsteps of my life. Today, whatever I am is His Divine Grace only.

Secondly, I am thankful to the blind students and the principal of Mamta Mandir, Palanpur (A school for the Divyaang students) from where I started this journey. The interaction with those blind students and school management was an experience which fuelled and propelled this work throughout.

Thirdly, I would like to express my gratitude to my guide Dr. Apurva Shah, Associate Professor, CSE Department, Faculty of Technology & Engineering, and Director, Computer Centre, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for his continuous motivation, invaluable advice, and guidance. His wisdom, knowledge, and commitment to the highest standards inspired and motivated me a lot. He has been very generous in providing the technical and financial help for carrying out my research. He is a gentleman who does all his duties with full devotion. I strongly believe that after pious deeds of many births, one can have such a kind-hearted doctoral advisor. I feel proud to have him as my Ph.D. guide.

I am thankful to my parents and parents-in-law, for, they have always been my motivation to do good for the society, especially, my father for whom I did this doctoral study as it was his dream to see me as a Doctor! I owe a lot to my lovely wife and daughter as I could not give enough time to them in this duration of doctoral studies. Without their generous and selfless support, this work would not have been possible.

I am also thankful to Dr. Viral Kapadia, Assistant Professor, CSE Department, Faculty of Technology & Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, for positively criticizing and evaluating the work and sparing his time by giving valuable comments and suggestions for the betterment of this work.

I have a feeling of gratitude to Mr. Lakulish Trivedi, Administrative Officer, Faculty of Commerce, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for providing any kind of help that I needed at any point of time in this duration and who has always stood by me.

On a personal note, I thank my mother-like Dr. Anjali Jivani (Amma), Associate Professor, CSE Department, Faculty of Technology & Engineering, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for providing me the study environment, resources and any help that I needed at any time. I also thank my colleague and friend Dr. Hetal Bhavsar who taught me classification techniques, mainly unsupervised learning techniques, clustering, to implement the Bag of Visual Words for this work. I am grateful to my two elder brother-like colleagues of department, Mr. Sandeep Patel and Mr. Ghanshyam Tadvi for their all round support for this work.

When I started this work, apart from the details given on the RBI website, to know the security features of the Indian currency and how the banking people recognize and differentiate between the real and fake currencies, I had interaction with Mr. Amol Tambe, Senior Branch Manager, Retail Branch Banking, ICICI Bank, Karelibaug Branch, Vadodara. I am grateful to him for sharing his time and giving the valuable information which helped me to move ahead for this work.

This work would not have been possible without the research works carried out by other researchers and authors. I am thankful to all of them whose research work helped me to carry out this work.

Finally, I thank my other colleagues in the department whose support and guidance helped me to move ahead. I am thankful to all my friends, well-wishers, who directly or indirectly supported me throughout this period morally and financially too.
