

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

"The universe is governed by scientific energy known as Lord and it's me", quoted by Shri Krishna indicates that for occurrence of any event, so many people are responsible either directly or indirectly. This is true for my journey from birth to Ph.D. I express my thanks to the Almighty for providing me inspiration, strength, energy and patience to start and accomplish my goal with the support of all concerned, a few of whom I am trying to acknowledge in these two paragraphs.

Parents/ Teachers:

My parents showered love and affection on me. They guided me through my first steps to this milestone in my life. They taught me to read, think and analyze. Primary, Secondary, Undergraduate, Post graduate teachers shaped me to this extent. I am really thankful to them.

Friends/students:

Kiran Parmar, Mihir Shah, Arun Nandurbarkar, Manish Ladani and my students Harish, Ajay, Anil, Jayesh, Ketan who helped me in this research work and I am sure, without their help and support, it would not have been possible for me to finish this work in a stipulated time. Prof.K.R. Parmar and Prof. Mihir V. Shah, who is the triveni of friend, colleague as well as real motivator from Ph.D. registration to thesis submission. I express my thanks to all of them.

Senior professors:

I thank Prof. K.A. Kanitkar Head of Electrical Dept, Prof .S. M. Joshi, Ex.Pro Vice-Chancellor, Prof. B. S. Parekh, Dean,Prof. A.I. Trivedi, Prof. S. K. Shah, , Mr. Sunil Patel and all of Electrical Engg, Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, M.S. University of Baroda for helping me in all the ways. I also thank Prof. M. N. Patel, Prof. R. J. Joshi, Prof. M. V. Garach and Prof. J. V. Dave, former Heads of the Department, Prof. Usha Neelkantan former Professor, all of L.D.College of

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Engineering, Ahmedabad for providing administrative and moral support from the beginning of this work.

Ph.D. guide:

I sincerely thank my guide Prof. S. M. Joshi, who has been the main source of inspiration, for guiding and motivating me every time I felt nervous due to my normal academic and administrative duties interfering with this work. He inspired me to work tirelessly for the entire duration of this work. He created and pointed to the path and helped in every way to reach this final destination.

Wife and daughters:

I express my thanks to my wife Urvashi and daughter Jency for all the support, inspiration and love given to me despite of all inconvenience caused to them due to my preoccupation with Ph.D. work.

Finally, last but not least, I thank all persons, who helped me in my Ph.D. work, but whose name may have been missed.
