

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Down to the memory lane, as I ponder I definitely feel that this research would have not been possible without the constant support, guidance and direction by many important persons.

I am extremely grateful to my research guide Prof. (Dr.) M. N. Parmar the Dean, Faculty of Social Work, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda - Vadodara. I acknowledge his constant support and guidance at every step of the research undertaking. As a person I have found plenty of encouragement and motivation.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Mohan C. Patel (Principal N. S. Patel Arts College, Anand) for his directed motivation and institutional support. I appreciate his motivation for my perseverance in research study.

I must render my gratitude to all the members of Faculty of Social Work (MSU Baroda, Vadodara) for their constant support and guidance to improvise the present study. I am indebted to Prof. Chhaya Patel, Prof. Jagdish Solanki, Prof. Bhavna Mehta, Dr. Leena Mehta, Prof. Sunita Nambiyar and Prof. Ankur Saxena for their constant support in facilitating the course work and giving new insights to the research.

I deeply appreciate the support of the Librarian of Faculty of Social Work (MSU Baroda, Vadodara) and librarian of Sir Dorabji Tata Memorial Library (TISS Mumbai) to make this research more enriched.

This research would be incomplete if I do not mention contribution of Mr. Narendrakumar D. Vasava. I accept that his support, inputs and critiques towards the study has enriched this research a lot.

I acknowledge the contribution of research scholars, practitioners and others associated to National Service Scheme and Youth of and for the nation. The Scholarly works of these eminent persons has made this research of the time.

I am heartily gratified to all the respondents who are NSS volunteers and NSS programme officers for their co-operation and willingness to be a part of this research.

I believe I can't give anything to my mother, I accept it.

RAJESH M. PATEL