Keep your dreams alive. Understand to achieve anything requires faith and belief in yourself, vision, hard work, determination, and dedication. Remember all things are possible for those who believe.

A single flower cannot make a garland or a single star cannot make the beautiful shiny sky at the night, same way a research work can never be outcome of an individual's talent or efforts. It is just like climbing a peak, step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardships, frustration, encouragement, often exciting, sometimes challenging, but always interesting experience. When I found myself at top experiencing the feeling of fulfillment, I realized though only my name appears on the cover of this dissertation, a great many people including my family members, well-wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions have contributed to accomplish this huge task. A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence.

First of all, I am grateful to the almighty. I feel that God (My Bhagu) is so much for me personally. It is God's love which is purifying me and feeling with spiritual might. It is his love which has filled me with quietness and tranquility. Because he is always with me, I never feel alone.

*It is my profound pleasure to dedicate this thesis to My Parents, Hasmukhray Savsani and Chetnaben Savsani whom I always reckon as God. The blessed hands of who always hold me at the worst time in my life. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a sentimental Dhinglu (Innocent Rabbit), lovely and caring person, standing beside me with their love and unconditional support. During the inevitable ups and downs of conducting my research she often reminded and listened me a song of Krishna “Ye Prathna Dil Ki bekar nahi hogi pura hai Bharosa Meri Haar nahi hogi”.
