I would like to take this opportunity to offer my heartfelt thanks to a number of people without whose help and support, this thesis would never have been possible.

In the first place I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my esteemed Supervisor, Dr. Krutika K. Sawant, Professor of Pharmaceutics, for her supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all and the most needed, she provided me unflinching encouragement and support in various ways. Her truly scientific intuition has made her as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in science, which exceptionally inspire and enrich my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist. I am indebted to her more than she knows.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Hasan Uludag, Professor, Department of Chemicals and Materials Engineering, University of Alberta, Canada in for accepting me as a visiting research scholar where he helped me understand intricacies of cell culture techniques. I am thankful to him for his help during my research stay.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. M. R. Yadav, Head, Pharmacy Department, and Prof. (Mrs.) S. J. Rajput, Prof. (Mrs.) Rajani Giridhar, Coordinator, G.H. Patel Pharmacy Building, Pharmacy Department, for having provided me with the necessary laboratory facilities and congenial ambience. I owe my deepest gratitude to Prof. R. S. R. Murthy, Prof. A. N. Misra, Prof. S. H. Mishra, Prof. R. Balraman, Dr. Rajashree Mashru, Dr. Hetal Thakkar, Mrs. Hemal Tandel, Dr. P. Nagar, Mr. S.P. Rathod for their valuable suggestions and help whenever sought for.

Gift sample of plasmid p53 by Dr Bert Vogelstein, Professor, Johns Hopkins University Baltimore, USA is duly acknowledged.

I am thankful to Ms.Arlene Oatway, Department of Biological Sciences, University of Alberta, for carrying out TEM studies. I would like to thank Ms Rekha Gaur for her help with flow cytometer related experiments.

I would like to thank Dr. Hamid Aliabadi, University of Alberta, Canada for providing me inputs while working on cell cultures. I wholeheartedly thank my lab friends at UofA Cezary Kucharski, Dr. Yufu Wang, Dr. Charlie Hsu, Breanne Landry and Laura Rose for their generous help whenever I needed during my project. Special thanks to Juliana Valencia Serna for her help during project work particularly with flow cytometry related experiments.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Rita Mulherkar, Genetic Engineering Lab, ACTREC, Mumbai for allowing me to carry out my in vivo experiments in her lab. I would like to thank her for sharing her views and giving me insights into all the in vivo related experiments

I wish to express my heartiest special thanks to Mr Ganesh Joshi, Scientific Officer, ACTREC for all his help and support during in vivo experiments. I wholeheartedly thank him for his tireless efforts in all these studies without any constraint. I am also thankful to my lab friend at ACTREC Peeyush Goyal, Zaid Sheikh and Dr. Iqbal Vohra.

I take this opportunity to express my thanks to non-teaching staff members at Pharmacy department, Kalabhavan and Pharmacy department, G. H. Patel Building for their kind cooperation.

I take great pleasure in thanking my dear friends Sandip, Kailash, Neeraj, Anant, Jigar, Mukesh K, Manjappa, Garima, Mukesh U, Kiran, Mohan, Prashant M., Prashant N., Abhijeet, Anshuman and all others, whose name I might be missing, for their support and encouragement, the moment with whom cannot be forgotten.

I would like to avail this rare opportunity to articulate my genuine appreciation to my most treasured friends Shankar, Gajanan, Prashant and Vijay. I thank all those for every ounce of effort they contributed.

I take this opportunity to sincerely thank the Canadian Bureau for International Education (CBIE), Canada for the financial support in term of Canadian Commonwealth Scholarship during research stay at UofA, Canada.

Where would I be without my family? My family deserves special mention for their inseparable support and prayers. Whatever Endeavour I have put to complete this work, would not have been possible without their support. I deeply thank my father, mother, brother and bhabhi and my sweet nephew Vedant for their love and support. My heartfelt special thanks to my soul mate for her never-ending, unconditional love, support and encouragement throughout the period. Words fail me to express my gratitude to all my family members, theirs dedication, love and persistent confidence in me. I owe for their patience until completion of my dissertation.

I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one.

Finally, I would love to thank Almighty for everything he gave to me.
