

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my gratitude to Prof. T.K.N. Menon, Dean of the Faculty of Education and Psychology, for his guidance in the preparation of the present study.

My best thanks are due to my colleague, Rev. James Filella, S.J., M.A., Ph.D., for reading my manuscript and offering very valuable suggestions, and for his ready assistance.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Elizabeth Sheerer, for allowing me to use her own definitions of self-acceptance and of acceptance of others, and also for assistance; to Dr. William Stephenson for his valuable advice, and for the great help I derived from his book "The Study of Behavior"; to my colleague, Rev. Fr. Parmanand R. Correia-Afonso, S.J., for his generous help in the preparation of the final copy; and to other colleagues, who helped me in different ways.

I wish to thank also Rev. Fr. M.M. Balaguer, S.J., Principal of St. Xavier's College, and Rev. Mother W. Ward, Principal of Sophia College, for their cooperation and kindness in allowing their students to be subjects for this study. And I very warmly thank the students who so willingly submitted to the tests, and thus made this study possible.
