

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Similar studies may be taken in other states of India.
2. A comparative study of two different states on costumes and textiles may also be carried out to know whether there is any impact of neighbouring states and of invaders.
3. Similar study can be carried out on head gears, upper garments and lower garments of India.
4. A study may be made on the costumes and textiles used by different religious groups in India.