

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I indeed feel privileged to submit my thesis on the topic "DELAY IN JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS AND EXECUTION OF DECREES - A CRITICAL STUDY OF EXISTING PROVISIONS OF LAW WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO RECOVERY SUITS BY BANKS (FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS)". The research work taken up in 1992 could be completed, with sustained encouragements and inspirations from many well wishers to whom, I express my gratitude.

I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for permitting me to pursue this research work on topic of public importance and for facilitating this work at all stages.

I take this opportunity to convey my deep sense of gratitude to respected Prof.(Dr.) J. C. Rathod, my guide, for continuous encouragement, suggestions and contribution in this work at every stage right since inception. Dr.Rathod, with his outstanding research work in protection of public interest under Company Law and with his vast exposure to teaching law, made several useful suggestions to give this research work its present shape.

I am thankful to Indian Law Institute and Prof.P. M. Baxi for affiliation given for this work.

I am also thankful to Hon'ble Justice D. A. Desai, retired judge, Supreme Court of India and Hon'ble Justice B. J. Diwan, retired Chief Justice, High Court of Gujarat for enriching this work by contributing their views. I am also thankful to the court staff, Advocate friends, Tribunals, Bankers and litigants who contributed and helped in the matter.

Smt.Hansa Mehta Library, Library of Bar Council of Baroda, Library of Indian Law Institute, New Delhi and National Law School of India, Bangalore provided considerable material useful for this subject.

I am also thankful to several authors, publishers and journals, who provided lot of insight into the various dimensions of the problem.

I must also acknowledge the sustained support of Mrs.Meena Thakar, Mrs.Mona Trivedi and Miss Nisha Ghadiali my office staff for their restless efforts in printing and editing this thesis.

Between 1992 to 1999 when this research work was on, I lost my beloved mother Labhuben Thakar and father in Law Shri Chandawani, who had a sustained desire that I should complete this work. I hence treat it as my humble tribute to them.
