

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Indeed the words at my command are not adequate in the form of spirits to convey the depth of my feelings of gratitude to my guide Prof. R. G. Kothari, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodra and former Vice Chancellor, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, for his valuable guidance, imperative encouragement and never ending zeal for quality work. I have been amazingly fortunate to have a guide who gave me the freedom to explore on my own and at the same time provided the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. His patience and support helped me overcome many critical situations. I am deeply grateful to him for the long discussions that helped me sort out the technical details of my work. His insightful comments and constructive criticisms were thought provoking and they helped me focus my ideas.

I am also indebted to Prof. S. C. Panigrahi, Head, Department of Education for his constant inspiring and encouraging support. I am grateful to Prof. D. R. Goel, Prof S. Kumar, Dr. Dipti Oza, Dr. Anajli Mehta for their academic support and valuable suggestions. I also thank Dr. Jayshree Das who was always keen and motivated me that I enroll myself for the study.

My profuse thanks are to Dr. R. C. Patel and Dr. A. Ramachary for sharing their incomparably profound knowledge with me, for deepening my understanding of science education, and for always being inspirational.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Jyotsna Amin, Dr. Priti Chaudhari, Dr. Sheetal Heliya, Dr. R. L. Madhavi, Dr. Kashyapi Awasthi and Dr. Reena Chaudhari, Dr. Vaishali Patel, Shalini Vardayini, Dr. Hiral Barot, Dr. Jignesh Patel and Ms. Vineetha Thomas for their academic and moral support.

I heartily extend sincere thanks to all the experts, for their timely support in validation of tools and precious suggestions for the present study.

I sincerely thank the principals, science teachers and students of all the schools, who were the sample of the investigation for the immense cooperation rendered. I am also thankful to Principal of Vidyut Board Vidyalaya, for giving permission to do experiment and Administrative Staff for providing cooperation during the entire academic year.

My Special thanks are due to Madam Ranjana Sapre, Madam Rajeshwari Iyer and the Students of 7th Standard of Vidyut Board Vidyalaya, without their cooperation and help this research would not have been possible.

I am also grateful to Mrs. Jesalben Patel, Librarian, CASE Library, for her help and support. Along with this I am also thankful to former librarian Mr. Y. K. Pandya and Mr. Suresh Sharma for their help and support.

I bow my head to my parents who have constantly motivated me throughout by showering on me their unconditional love and care. An ode of thanks to my parents for they have instilled in me the passion to see my dreams through my darkest nights and brightest of days. My mother Mrs. Premila H. Shelat has been truly inspirational and one of the greatest teachers. I salute her for her passion and wisdom and wish to follow her footsteps. I thank my father Shri Harivadan S. Shelat for always being there for me and supporting me. My deepest thanks to both my elder brothers Sarvesh and Parag for all the support they rendered during the course of the study.

A special word of thanks to both my students Avinash and Ami for reminding me of my target and thus making me remain focused towards my work,

Above all, I thank Almighty God who is the constant source of strength and inspiration, I Thank you Lord for bestowing on me all the grace.
