

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I had the good fortune to carry out my research work under Dr.(Miss) M.M.Shah, Reader in Education, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda. She was a continuous source of thought provoking discussion, valuable counsel and inspiration throughout my work. She bore with my drawbacks patiently and provided supervisory incentive without which it would not have been possible for me to present this research work. I express my deep sense of gratitude to her for her worthwhile direction and effective suggestions given to me in this work.

Professor D.B.Desai, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology and Head, CASE, initiated me to take up the present research and was a fountainhead of motivation that urged me to keep up tenaciously at this work. I am extremely grateful to him for his personal warmth towards me and his worthwhile suggestions that aided me in continuing and completing this work.

I sincerely thank Dr.K.C.Bhatt, Principal, Shri Rang Shikshan Mahavidyalaya, Bilimora who was kind enough to allow me to take up this experiment at the Mahavidyalaya and gave me unconstrained freedom for arranging practice teaching work according to the design of this research work.

I am highly indebted to Principal N.M.Vashi and my colleagues Dr.D.G.Naik and Dr.P.T.Gilitwala for their valuable assistance in my work.

I would also like to thank Principal D.D. Mehta of J.J. Mehta High School, Bilimora who gave me every possible assistance and facilities for conducting this experiment at his school, and whose co-operation proved valuable especially in planning microteaching in real situation.

Last but not the least, I would like to remember my friend and colleague Late Shri N.D. Mehta who was constantly with me throughout the study, worked as a co-supervisor in microteaching and provided useful administrative suggestions and valuable help in this work. His early sad demise cut short our joy of working together and he could not see this research work completed. I am deeply appreciative of his co-operation and take this opportunity to express my humble gratitude to him.

Baroda,
