

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I sincerely acknowledge the guidance received from my guide, Dr. Jayraj D Jadeja, Reader in Marketing and the invaluable inputs received from Professor (Dr.) G.C Maheshwari, Head and Dean, Faculty of Management Studies, The M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara.

The adolescents and their parents have responded despite the time constraint during academic timetable and doctors from medicine fraternity cooperated to answer my queries. This study is completed with their support and co-operation only. I am deeply indebted to the principals and administrators of the schools for permitting me to conduct the study in their school in spite of their busy academic schedule.

I am thankful to many teenagers and parents who interacted through e-mail on the website www.teensnparents.com designed with the help of Vcan Technologies.

I would like to thank my wife Rama who helped in collection of data, particularly in the schools for “only girls”. I would also thank my son Tanmay who carried the complete data entry as well as Mihir who helped in statistical analysis and Alkesh in printing.
