

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words fail to express all my praise, profound gratitude, appreciation and reverence to my esteemed guide Prof. (Dr.) A.S. Patel, Professor & Head, Civil Engineering Department, Faculty of Technology & Engineering, The M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara for his motivation and guidance to carry out this research. His valuable guidance and suggestions have helped me develop a vision for the subject. He not only took keen interest in the subject but also guided me from the grass root level. His attitude towards analyzing the subject made the difference. I am extremely proud and obliged to have him as my guide and thank him profusely.

On this occasion, I cannot forget to express my great sentiments of regards and indebtedness to Dr. D.R.Sena, Senior Scientist (Engineering), Central Soil and Water Conservation Research and Training Institute, Research Centre, Vasad for circumstancive monitoring coupled with perennial and intellectual guidance instigating encouragement, creative thoughts and moral boost up during the course of this study. I feel myself favoured to have his support for this study.

I heartily thank the office bearers and staff of various offices like State Water Data Centre (SWDC), Gujarat Water Resources Development Corporation (GWRDC), Kutch Irrigation Circle (KIC), Gujarat Engineering Research Institute (GERI), Water and Soil Management Organisation (WASMO), District Statistical Officer, Central Arid Zone Research Institute (CAZRI) and several others for supporting me in this study by providing me with valuable data and access to their libraries.

I consider myself extremely gifted to have a spouse like Mr. Suhas Mujumdar, who is the backbone of not only this research but also in all forms of development on my professional front. Besides encouraging and motivating me to take up this research work, he has not only supported me morally in my work but also accompanied me during my site visits and gave me valuable suggestions for improving my work. Without his support, it would have been practically impossible to take up this study.

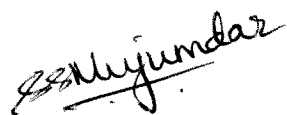

I would be very selfish if I forget my two daughters Sharvari and Shalaka, as I have stolen lot of time from their share for fulfilling this project. They have also accompanied me during some of my visits for data collection. I appreciate their patience and understanding at such a tender age, which was like a silent support for my work.

Most humble, I bow my head with reverence to my parents in-laws Charulata & Suresh Mujumdar, my parents Malti & Anil Navale whose incessant love, blessings and inspiration made me competent enough to fight the battle of life and to achieve the goal. I would especially like to mention the role of my mother-in-law Charulata for being a pillar of support during all difficult times on my professional front and my father Prof. Anil Navale for practically nagging for the quality of the work.

I am indebted to my sisters-in-law Sujata and Suvarna, my brother Kunal and bhabhi Sephalika who have supported me during the completion of this work. I would be doing the least by thanking them profusely.

Last but not the least, I am highly obliged and thankful to all those whose mention may have been missed out but have not been forgotten.

I once again thank one and all sincerely.
