

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Many people and institutions have been of immense support during the pursuit of my PhD research. First and foremost, I would like to thank my research supervisor, Prof. K. Krishnan for his advice and his encouragement and most importantly for allowing me to grow as a researcher, in my own time and on my own terms. His constant encouragement towards the need for academically incisive approaches by integrating diverse methodological skills motivated me to undertake such a research.

To Dr. Rohitha Eswer, Maharajas College, Mysore University, Mysore and Dr. Shobha V., Mysore University, I express my sincere debt of gratitude for acting as my mentors ever since I began my Post-Graduate studies in 2007. Dr. Rohitha Eswer, besides acting as my mentor was kind enough to initiate me into the nuances of epigraphic studies and art-historical investigations during the early days of this research. In addition, his valuable assistance in the analysis of the sculptural art of the memorial stones will forever be acknowledged. I also wish to thank Dr. Abhijit Dandekar, Deccan College Post-Graduate and Research Institute, Pune, under whose supervision, the current thesis was initiated as a pilot investigation as a M.A. dissertation.

The University Grants Commission is gratefully acknowledged for providing me a fellowship for a period of four years in the pursuit of this research. The Small Study Research Grant awarded to me by the Nehru Trust for the Indian Collections at the Victoria and Albert Museum, New Delhi supported me in undertaking ethnographic surveys to understand several dimensions of the memorial stones in the area under investigation.

I am also indebted to the teaching and non-teaching faculty of the Department of Archaeology and Ancient History, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their constant support during the pursuit of my PhD. I wish to thank Prof. P. Ajithprasad not only for all the support he provided during my stay at the Department but also for making archaeological investigations exciting. Prof. V.H. Sonawane's warm attitude, encouraging words certainly enhanced my morale. My heartfelt thanks also go to Prof. Kuldeep Bhan, Dr. Preeti Panjwani, Dr. S. Prathapchandran, Dr. Sushmita Sen, Dr. Charusmita Gadekar, Dr. Reshma Sawant and Dr. Urmi Biswas for their support and encouragement during the tenure of the PhD. Mr. Bhupesh Pathak, Mr. Ibrahim Shaikh (Lalabhai), Mr. Anil Rathore, Mr. Vinay Bhatt and Mr. Mahesh Vaghela deserve special mention for supporting me in finding relevant literature and processing of official paperwork during my stay at Vadodara. In addition, I express my gratitude to Mr. Chirag Bhatt, GCU section, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda who has been extremely helpful in the timely processing of the bills submitted to his office.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Rajesh S.V., Dr. Prabhin Sukumaran and Mr. Victor Gnanaraj in preparing the maps that are used in this thesis. Dr. Rajesh S.V. in addition also helped in the formatting of this thesis in a presentable format.

I have been privileged to have had generous and warm support of my friends and seniors at Deccan College Post Graduate and Research Institute, Pune. Many of the ideas presented in this thesis spring from my discussions with them. These include Pankaj Goyal, Amol Kulkarni, Ajmal Shah, Shantanu Vaidya, Parth Chauhan, Yogesh Mallinathapur, Toshabanta Pradhan, Gopal Joge and Soliya Phadnis. Special thanks to Pankaj Goyal and Mohan Pardhi who helped me during my stay in Pune and helping me issue books from the library at Deccan College.

The support of my friends has been a crucial part of all my accomplishments. I have been really lucky to have a wonderful group of friends at the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara. I am thankful to the friendship and companionship of Saleem Shaik, Bhanu Prakash Shama, Hemant Mande, Oishi

Roy, Kalyani Vaghela, Sneh Patel, Mohit Mahajan, Ritvik Balvally, Devara Anil Kumar, Tanmay Goswami, Aditya Singh, Arun Kumar, Aritra Patra, Victor Gnanaraj, Oini Tatak and Garima Singh. The moments of frustration and fun which I have shared with them will remain with me throughout my life.

I cannot put into words my gratitude to my parents, Mr. Mahesh Jambulingam and Mrs. Krupa Mahesh, who over the past six years have put my dreams first and their patience during my physical and mental absences has been nothing short of incredible. Finally, I wish to thank my sister Dr. Mahima Mahesh, whose support and encouragement in so many ways have helped me finally reach the successful end of the journey. If I have left anyone out, I sincerely apologize, but know that my thanks go out to you as well.

Vrushab Mahesh
