A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of three years of work whereby I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is a pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my gratitude for all of them. (My sincere apologies to anyone inadvertently omitted).

The first person I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and special thanks to our respected Chairman and Managing Director of Zydus Cadila, Mr. Pankaj R. Patel for providing me an opportunity to carry out my research at Zydus Research Centre, Ahmedabad.

I gratefully acknowledge the constant and invaluable academic and personal support received from my two supervisors throughout this research.

First of all, my main supervisor: Dr Mukul R. Jain, Vice-President, Zydus Research Centre, Ahmedabad for helping me to find my elusive grounding to the research problem, and, without whose dedicated supervision it would have been difficult to complete this thesis on time. He has been actively interested in my work and has always been available to advise me. I am very grateful for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge in Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Secondly, my external supervisor, the Dr. A. N. Misra, Professor and Head, Pharmacy Department, M. S. University of Baroda, Vadodara for his valuable guidance. I thank him for his unflagging encouragement, invaluable suggestions and guidance which provided a good basis and strong foundation for the present thesis.

I would like to thank my former department heads, Dr. Sandip B. Tiwari, Colorcon Inc USA and Dr. Rudresha Prasad, GSK, Nasik, who initiated me to take up this research and kept an eye on the progress of my work and always were available when I needed their advises.

I also thank Dr. N. Venkatesan, Scientist, Zydus Research Centre who advised me and helped me in various aspects of my research. He is the one that I can always count on to discuss the tiniest details of a problem.

I thank the PhD committee members at Zydus Research Centre: Dr. Bipin Pandey, Vice-President, CMC, Dr. Sanjeev Kumar, Vice-President, Biotechnology Dept. and Mr. Ashish Gupte, Manager, HR, for providing me an excellent work environment.

I am grateful to Dr. B. B. Lohray, ex-President, Zydus Research Centre who advised me and helped me in various aspects of my research. His visionary thoughts and energetic working style have influenced me greatly.

I thank my former colleague Dr. Prabakaran, Lupin Research Park for valuable suggestions and feedback, which helped me to improve the quality of my research in many ways.

I am also deeply indebted to the many others who provided help, support and encouragement in various ways. Here I include the following individuals of Zydus

Research Centre for providing an opportunity that made it possible for me to pursue this research.

Mr. Kaushik Banerjee, IPM Dept., for supporting me in Patent and Publication related issues. I shall be failing in my duties if I do not acknowledge my Zydus Research Centre colleagues Mr. Harilal and Dr. Pradyuman for providing necessary facility to carry out animal studies, Dr. Ravindra, Mr. Manish, Mr. Prakash, Mr. Shailesh, Mr. Snehal, Mr. Rahul, Mr. Rohit, Mr. Jatin and Mr. Darshan for providing the analytical support.

I am also grateful to Mr. Ashok S, Purchase Dept, Mr. Sen S, Finance Dept, Mr. Binu P and Ms. Clarine P, CMD Office, Mr. Vishal J and Mr. Rawjeet S, IT Dept., Mr. Shyam K and Mr. Anil C, HR Dept, Mr. U Soni, Stores Dept. Mr. Natubhai, Library Dept. for their unconditional support.

It is with immense pleasure, I express my sincere thanks to Mr. S. B. Roy, President, Pharmaceutical Technology Centre, Zydus Cadila, Ahmedabad. I also humbly acknowledge the support received from my colleagues from Zydus Tower (Corporate office) Mr. Jay Kothari and Mr. D.M. Patel.

I had the pleasure to supervise and work with several students who did their post graduation (M.Pharm) project and have been somehow beneficial for the presented work in this thesis. Particular I would like to thank Murali, Deepak, Vineet, Jaipal, Shastry, Abhishek, Nitesh, Rajani, Sunny and Mohit.

Additional energy and vitality for this research was provided externally through my former department colleagues Jagadeesh and Rajesh and the present department colleagues Shreejit, Jitendra and Aramudan.

I would like to give a special note of attention for my dear ZRC friends Jogeswar, Vishwanath, Anil, Dr Amit, Dr Suresh, Dr Vijay, Dr Sagar, Kiran, Pravin, Siva Sankar and Samadhan for their gesture of true friendship.

Doing a PhD is one of the best decisions of my life and it is impossible to forget stimulating best wishes, whole hearted support, affection and constant encouragement of my dear friends Pramod, Mahavir, Devendra, Viral, Tapan and Kaustub from MS University.

I feel a deep sense of gratitude for my father and mother who formed part of my vision and taught me the good things that really matter in life. I am grateful for my sister, Dr. Pradnya and brother-in-law, Dr. Uday for rendering me the sense and the value of brotherhood. I thank my father-in-law, mother-in-law and sister-in-law, Trupti and Swapnali, brother-in-law, Chetan and nephew, Spandan for always being there when I needed them most and for their love, support and encouragement throughout my PhD Studies.

To 'the wind beneath my wings' - my wife Yogita, for believing in me and for being so patient during the PhD period. One of the best experiences that we lived through in this period was the birth of our son Shreyas, who provided an additional and joyful dimension to our life mission.

Last but not the least I thank the Almighty for his unlimited favors showered upon me.
