

CONTENTS

Chapter No.	Title	Page No.
	List of Tables	v-xii
	List of Figures	xiii-xiv
I	Introduction	1-50
	Concept of Violence Against Women	3
	Defining and Understanding Domestic Violence	6
	Factors Operating on Domestic Violence	11
	The Ecological Framework for Understanding Domestic Violence	14
	Perspectives on Responding to Domestic Violence	17
	The Concept of Health	21
	Understanding Women's Health Problems	26
	Domestic Violence as a Determinant of Women's Health	28
	The Concept of Health Care	36
	Perspectives on Health Care	37
	The Concept of Health Care System	41
	Concept of Users and Providers	42
	Quality of Care and the Health Care System	45
	Domestic Violence and Health Care - A Syllogistic Tie	48
II	Review of Literature	51-93
	Domestic Violence - Magnitude of the Problem	52
	Domestic Violence - A Public Health Issue	61
	Health Care System's Response to Domestic Violence	68
	Silence Surrounding Domestic Violence	79

Chapter No.	Title	Page No.
III	Research Methodology	94-128
	Significance of the Present Study for Social Work Profession	94
	Setting of the Study	98
	Research Questions	101
	Methodology	102
IV	Results and Interpretations: Perspective of Women Users	129-220
	Section – 1: Personal Background Information of Women Respondents	130
	Section – 2: Details of the Health Problem, Treatment and Care	140
	Section – 3: Experiences and Perception of the Quality of Health Care Services	156
	Section – 4: Relationship between Personal Background Information and Cause of the Health Problem	175
	Section – 5: Relationship between Current Health Problem and Cause of the Health Problem	185
	Section – 6: Relationship Between Women Respondents' Experiences and Perception of Quality of Care and Cause of their Health Problem	191
	Section – 7: Personal Experiences of Domestic Violence	199
	Section – 8: Views on Domestic Violence	209
	Section – 9: Need to Seek Health Care Providers' Intervention in Domestic Violence	213

Chapter No.	Title	Page No.
V	Results and Interpretations: Perspective of Health Care Providers	221-297
	Section – 1: Personal Background Information of Health Care Providers (HCP)	222
	Section – 2: Perception of Women’s Health Care Seeking Behaviour	233
	Section – 3 : Health Care to Survivors of Domestic Violence	238
	Section – 4: Response of Health Care Providers to Survivors of Domestic Violence	248
	Section – 5: Barriers in Addressing the Issue of Domestic Violence	258
	Section – 6: Correlates of Health Care Providers’ Response to Women Survivors of Domestic Violence	271
	Section – 7: Preparedness and Requirements to Respond to Survivors of Domestic Violence	288
VI	Case Studies	298-326
	Response of the Health Care System to Domestic Violence: Voices of Survivors	299
	What Do these Stories Tell Us?	323
VII	Summary, Discussion, Conclusions and Suggestions	327-368
	Summary of Results	327
	Domestic Violence and Health Care - Emerging Linkages	356
	Discussion and Conclusion	358
	Suggestions : Breaking the Silence around Domestic Violence: An Agenda for Social Work Intervention	362
	Suggestions for Future Researches	366

Chapter No.	Title	Page No.
	References	369-394
	Appendices	395-435
A	Narration for Verbal Informed Consent	395
B	Interview Schedule - A study of Women Users' Perspective	396
C	Interview schedule - A Study of a Health Care Providers' Perspective	414
D	List of Woman Users	427
E	Hospital Details	428
F	List of Health Care Providers	429
G	Information Related to Survivors of Domestic Violence	430
H	Human Rights related to Violence against Women in International Conventions	434
I	Declarations at International Conferences Related to Violence against Women	435