

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On this auspicious occasion of the submission of my thesis, for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Education, it is a matter of pleasure on my part to acknowledge the sincere, scholarly and detailed guidance accorded to me, by my guiding teacher Dr. J.J.Gajjar, Reader in Education and Foreign Students' Advisor, at this University. To me, he has been a guide as well as a friend both in terms of academic and personal matters.

I sincerely feel grateful to Professor D.B.Desai, Head, Department of Education and Centre of Advanced Study in Education (C.A.S.E.) and Dean of the Faculty of Education and Psychology, Professor M.S.Yadav, Professor P.K.Dongre and all other staff members of the Faculty for their sincere and kind help for my research work.

On this august day, I remember with love, respect and honour the contributions made upon me by Professor A.K. Nazmul Karim, University of Dacca, Professor Mohammad Afsaruddin, University of Dacca and a former Pro. Vice Chancellor of University of Dacca and Professor Fazlur Rashid Khan, University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, who helped me grow academically.

I am thankful to all friends of mine in Bangladesh, India and abroad, who helped me directly or indirectly, in preparing this work.

I am highly thankful to Government of India, New Delhi, for offering me its prestigious National Scholarship, under Indo Bangladesh Cultural and Academic Exchange Programme and my Home Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, Dacca, for granting me deputation for the period necessary for the successful completion of the present research work. I am thankful to the people of four villages, under study, for their kind co-operation, for collecting the necessary data.

Last but not the least, let me remember with all love, honour and respect the departed soul of my father Hazrat Kashim Ali, who saw me off at Tejgoan, not to receive at Kurmitola. I dedicate this humble work of mine to him.

Md. Nurul Islam.
