

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	v to viii
Contents	ix to xii
List of Tables	xiii to xiv

CHAPTER	TOPIC	PAGE
I	Introduction	1-11
II	The Evolution of the Depressed Classes and their Handicaps through the Ages.	12-49
	- The Caste System, its Origin	12
	- The Evolution of the Depressed Classes and their Social Placement.	19
	- The Impediments upon the Depressed Classes.	27
	- Taboos for the Education of the Depressed Classes.	33
	- The Continuance of the Traditional Hardships during the Medieval and Pre-British Period.	40
	- The State of Indian Society at the beginning of the Nineteenth Century.	45

CHAPTER	TOPIC	PAGE
III	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1813 to 1882	50-96
	- Early attempts for the Education of the Poorer Classes.	50
	- Mahatma Jotirao Phoolley's Crusade for the Education of the Depressed Classes.	63
	- The Hardships Caused to the Depressed Class Pupils in Common Schools.	69
	- Official Policies for the Admission of Depressed Class Pupils in Common Schools.	72
	- The Contribution of Social Reform Movements to the Educational Development of the Depressed Classes.	76
	- The Caste Disabilities Removal Act of 1872.	90
	- Educational Progress attained by the Depressed Classes upto 1882.	91
IV.	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1883 to 1904.	97-136
	- Recommendations of the Indian Education Commission for Promoting Education among the Depressed Classes.	97
	- Steps Envisaged by the Provincial Governments for the Extension of Education to the Depressed Classes.	104
	- A Review of the Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes in British India during 1882-1904.	132
V.	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1905 to 1921.	137-207
	- The Socio-Political Scene at the beginning of the Period.	137
	- Political Demands for the Social Elevation and Educational Advancement of the Depressed Classes.	143

CHAPTER	TOPIC	PAGE
	- Demands for Compulsory Primary Education and their Implications for the Education of the Depressed Classes.	162
	- The Efforts made by Voluntary Agencies for promoting Education among the Depressed Classes.	165
	- Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes in the Provinces of British India.	176
	- General Picture of the Educational Development among the Depressed Classes upto 1921.	197
VI.	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1922 to 1932.	208-257
	- The Political Scene at the beginning of the Period.	208
	- Depressed Classes Fight for Social Equality.	211
	- Other Significant Political Events having a bearing on the Welfare of the Depressed Classes.	224
	- Educational Policies which helped the Development of Education among the Depressed Classes.	234
	- Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes in the Provinces of British India.	245
	- A Review of the Educational Progress of the Depressed classes upto 1932.	254
VII.	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1932 to 1937.	258-309
	- Depressed Classes termed as Exterior Castes, Harijans, Scheduled Castes.	258
	- Gandhiji's Campaign for the Elevation of the Depressed Classes.	262
	- Gandhian Philosophy on Harijan Education.	270

CHAPTER	TOPIC	PAGE
	- The Educational Activities of the Harijan Sewak Sangh.	278
	- Other Voluntary Institutions opened for the Depressed Classes.	291
	- Special Facilities granted by the Universities, Boards of School Examination for the Depressed Classes.	295
	- The Position of the Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes in the Provinces of British India.	299
VIII	Education of the Depressed Classes from 1938-1947.	310-342
	- Efforts of the Provincial Congress Ministries for the Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes.	311
	- The Educational Activities of Harijan Sewak Sangh during the Period.	317
	- Dr. Ambedkar's efforts for obtaining special Facilities to the Depressed Classes.	319
	- Institution of Scholarship Scheme for the Depressed Classes.	324
	- Sargent Report on the Education of the Depressed Classes.	328
	- Steps taken by the Provincial Governments for promoting Education among the Depressed Classes.	330
	- Educational Progress of the Depressed Classes during the Period.	337
IX.	Summary and Conclusions	343 to 386
	Selected Bibliography	387 to 401
	Appendix	i to xxxv