

LIST OF FIGURES

CHAPTER I

- Figure 1.1: Making the lysosomal enzymes
- Figure 1.2: Formation of lysosomal recognition tag or marker, mannose-6-phosphate
- Figure 1.3: M6P-dependent enzymes sorting to the lysosome
- Figure 1.4: The endocytic pathway
- Figure 1.5: Lysosomes as catabolic centers of the cell
- Figure 1.6: Subtypes of storage organelles accumulate in LSDs
- Figure 1.7: Summary of organelles affected in LSDs
- Figure 1.8: Effect of lysosomal enzyme deficiency on cell morphology
- Figure 1.9: AP radiograph of GD patient
- Figure 1.10: Reaction catalysed by acid- β -glucosidase
- Figure 1.11: The refined X-ray structure of acid- β -glucosidase
- Figure 1.12: The refined X-ray structure of acid- β -glucosidase(created using PyMOL(<http://www.pymol.org>))
- Figure 1.13: Mutations in acid- β -glucosidase
- Figure 1.14: GBA gene structure
- Figure 1.15: An enlarged view of 5' GBA region and flanking sequences

CHAPTER II

- Figure 2.1: Structure of nonphysiological β -glucosidase substrates & their reaction products
- Figure 2.2: GBA structure and mutation distribution

CHAPTER IV

- Figure 4.1: Agarose gel of genomic DNA extracted from whole blood
- Figure 4.2: Agarose gel of amplified PCR product for GBA gene

CHAPTER VI

- Figure 5.1: Prevalance of LSDs
- Figure 5.2: Age, Sex and Type of GD patients

- Figure 5.3: GD patients from different regions
- Figure 5.4: Symptoms associated with GD
- Figure 5.5: 4-MU standard curve for chitotriosidase and β -glucosidase
- Figure 5.6: Plasma chitotriosidase activity in patients with GD
- Figure 5.7: Gel profile of common mutations
- Figure 5.8: DNA sequencing chromatogram of common mutation in GBA gene
- Figure 5.9: DNA sequencing chromatogram of mutations in exons of GBA gene
- Figure 5.10: DNA sequencing chromatogram of carrier parents
- Figure 5.11: DNA sequencing chromatogram showing novel mutations
- Figure 5.12: Protein structure of novel mutations
- Figure 5.13: Gel profile of common mutations
- Figure 5.14: DNA sequencing chromatogram of prenatal diagnosis

CHAPTER VII

- Figure 6.2: Factors which may contribute to phenotype in patients with GD
