

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The study would have been difficult to conduct without the help and support of a number of people. I express my sincere gratitude to them. I especially thank my guide Mr. Z. M. Quraishi for having successfully led me to the completion of my work. I am deeply indebted to him for his active concern, scholarly guidance and critical comments, without which my research work would not have been satisfactorily completed in time. I am also grateful to him for translating "The prolonged deprivation scale" from Hindi to Gujarati, which was one of my basic tools of my research.

I offer my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. N.S.Pathak, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M.S. University of Baroda, for his valuable guidance and encouragement at every stage in this investigation. I also record here my appreciation and gratitude to Dr. I.D. Bhatt, Mr. Maria Xavier and the other faculty members of my Department for giving me due encouragement and help from time to time in the research work.

I am also deeply grateful to Mr. Omit Bhattacharji (I.I.T. Kanpur) for his helpful suggestions regarding the statistical analysis and the computer programming of my research data.

I am much obliged to the Municipal Corporation School Authorities of Baroda for providing me with the facilities for data collection. I also owe a large debt to all those teacher and students of municipal corporation schools, who participated in my study as subjects.

I am grateful to my friends Mr. Suresh, Mr. Deepak, Mr. Amit, Mr. Nayan, Mr. Atul Sharma, Miss Vijaya, Miss Dolly, Mrs. Renu, Miss Chandrima, Miss Neeru, Miss Jayshree, Miss Uma, Miss Kajal,

Miss Minal, Miss Thiliga and Mrs. Joba Bhattacharji for their help in various ways at various stages of my research work.

Last but not least I thank my parents for having motivated me and encouraged me when the going seemed rough and the goal far.
