Role-play enacted by students themselves

In the school's parent-teacher association meet-	:	-----	----- ing, one group of parents suggest that girls'	:	Pre-discussion	Post-discussion uniform needs a change. Skirts and pinafores	:	choice	choice should go. Instead comfortable shorts and shirt	:	-----	----- should be introduced. Shirts and frocks restrict	:	:	:
free movement during sports and physical activi-	:	:	:
ties or games in the recess. They make girls	:	:	:
conscious and hamper development. The other group	:	:	:
opposes saying that skirts and frocks are more	:	:	:
appropriate, graceful and socially desirable.	:	:	:
Q. What decision should the Principal take?	:	:	:
(1) Change the uniform	:	25 (all girls)	No voting.
(2) Not change the uniform	:	24 (8 girls)	Very hot discu-

Film clip recorded on video

	Pre-discussion choice	Post-discussion choice
The film clip is taken from the Hindi film 'Aandhi' directed by Gulzar and starring Sanjeev-kumar as J.K., Suchitra Sen as Aarti and Rehman as Aarti's father.
Aarti's father is a leading political figure. Aarti has married J.K., a hotel manager despite her father's opposition.
The scene on video begins with Aarti and J.K. in morning, at their home in a happy mood. J.K. is photographing Aarti when she gets up and begins to get ready to go out. As she takes out a Khaddar Sari, J.K. senses that she plans to go for a political meeting with her father. J.K. objects, harshly tells Aarti to stay at home and look after home and their daughter. Aarti says that sometime when she has to go, he can take leave from work and look after the daughter. J.K. does not agree and tells Aarti to stop 'Netagiri' (leadership). Later when Aarti goes to meet her father, he is very upset. He feels that he encouraged Aarti to acquire a higher degree in law and become a barrister so that she has a bright future ahead. Now she is putting everything at stake for a lowly hotel manager. She should not sacrifice her political ambition and career for him.
Q. What should Aarti do?
(1) sacrifice her political career and ambition	28 (all boys)	23 (all boys)
(2) go ahead in politics and should not waste her talent and education	3	2

Video Recording

Sarla is an officer in a big company where Seema has just joined as her assistant. One day Sarla finds Seema very upset. Seema confides that a male officer has been making passes at her. He also writes vulgar letters. Sarla says that Seema should at once report it to their boss. But Seema hesitates. She says that when she complained about it at home her mother said that it was all Seema's fault. She wears fashionable dresses and has her hair cut. Moreover, complaining to the Boss will malign Seema's reputation not the male officer's.

Q. What should Seema do?
