It is with pleasure that I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Dr. N.L.Singh for his excellent guidance, affectionate counselling, untiring and inspiring supervision, encouragement and the freedom to explore given to me during the course of this work.

I express my indebtedness to Prof. D.R.S. Somayajulu (Former Head), Prof C. F. Desai Head, Physics Department for providing excellent research facilities during the course of this investigation.

I am grateful to Dr. V. Shrinet of E.R.D.A., Vadodara and Prof. A.K. Rakshit, MSU Baroda for their constant encouragement, profound interest, and for giving me constant valuable and fruitful suggestions at every stage of this work.

I am greatly thankful to Prof. G.K. Mehta (Ex. Director NSC), Dr. Amit Roy (Director NSC), Mr D.K. Avasthi (NSC), New Delhi and Prof. M. Ramamoorthy (Director ERDA, Baroda) for their kind cooperation in providing me with excellent facilities for this work.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Fr. Vincent Braganza s.j., for inspiring me to do my PhD, precious help and constant encouragement at almost all stages of this venture; especially at the time when I was facing the most traumatic phase of my life. It would have been very difficult to complete this work without his help moral support and encouragement. I thank the Management, Head of Physics Department and my colleagues at, St. Xavier's College, Ahmedabad for their whole hearted co-operation.

I am exceedingly grateful to Dr. Manish Gadkari, Dr. Dhiren Shah, Mr. H. B. Patel, Ms. Nilam Shah and Miss Anjum Qureshi for all the kind co-operation and help they extended during the course of my work.

I am also thankful to each staff member of NSC, New Delhi for their efforts which culminated in successful Pelletron operation and completion of this experimental programme. I would also like to express my sincere thanks to all staff members of XRF, Ahmedabad for their whole hearted support during the course of this work.

"If you can't see the stars twinkle in the night sky, it doesn't mean that they've disappeared. They're just behind a blanket of clouds and you will see them shine again" these are precious words often said by my parents to help me achieve my goal. I sincerely thank them for boosting my morale always and being by me in each and every hour of need. Thank u Papa.

With a deep sense of gratitude I acknowledge the support and encouragement of my in-laws and my dear sisters Rakhi and Megha Sharma. A sincere thank you to them all. Without their good wishes, love, support and constant encouragement this work would have been a distant dream.

It is not possible to forget my Dearest Husband Mr Akshaya Nath, my backbone. It was his constant push that kept me going to complete my work. His co-operation, help and constantly repeated phrase "Don't let this day pass without doing something to make your dream come true" helped me hold myself together in the end.

A million thanks to my Guru Barphani Dadaji. His love, support and blessings have brought me all the good and all I have desired in my life. I thank him from the core of my heart for being a guru in the real sense.

Above all this venture has successfully come to an end with God's blessings. God has been with me throughout: wherever I went and in whatever I did. He gave me the help, comfort, peace, fairness, justice, goodness, mercy and bestowed all his love on me making me feel like his favorite child to help me achieve this dream of mine.

Anita Sharma.
