

APPENDIX - G

ACHIEVEMENT TEST II IN GEOGRAPHY (ACHE) (Final Test)

I Fill in the blanks:

1. _____ separates North America from Asia.
2. The highest of the Cordilleras is _____.
3. Electric power generated by burning coal is known as _____.
4. The men working in the forests of Canada are called _____.

II Make out the correct pairs from the two columns by writing the letters within brackets.

- | | | |
|-------------------------|--------|----------------------------|
| 1. Tennessee Valley | () | a. Dry region |
| | | b. Mediterranean climate |
| 2. Grand Banks | () | c. Monsoon rain in summer |
| | | d. rain all the year round |
| 3. Alaska | () | e. multi purpose project |
| | | f. Dairy farming |
| 4. Arizona | () | g. fishing |
| 5. South California | () | |
| 6. West coast of Mexico | () | |

III Answer the following questions briefly:-

1. What is the fall line?
2. Where are the Niagra Falls? How are they useful?
3. What are the five great lakes of North America?
4. How is St. Lawrence the most useful of the Atlantic rivers?
5. Why is Yukon not much useful though it is about 3220 km long?
6. Why are the soils of the central plains very fertile?

7. Why is the west coast of North America much warmer than the east coast in winter?
8. Why is the centre of the continentⁿ very cold in winter?
9. What are the dry regions of North America?
10. Why is dairy farming carried on in the St: Lawrence region?

IV Mark on an out line of North America, the following:-

1. Pacific Ocean
2. Atlantic Ocean
3. Hudson Bay
4. Mexico
5. Gulf of Mexico
6. Canada
7. United States of America
8. California
9. River St: Lawrence
10. Canadian Shield