

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE NO.	TITLE	PAGE
1.	Frequency and percentage distribution indicating the personal characteristics of the respondents and their husbands.....	90
2.	Frequency and percentage distribution indicating family characteristics of respondents and their husbands.....	93
3.	Frequency and percentage distribution indicating personal and demographic characteristics of the employed women.....	97
4.	Frequency and percentage distribution indicating the level of modernity in homemaking in selected areas of employed women's families.....	101
5.	Significant correlation between selected attributes of employed women and modernity in homemaking.....	105
6.	Frequency and percentage distribution of the respondents according to their use and non use of equipment and appliances in the area of food..	111
7.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents according to their use and non use of equipment and appliances in the area of clothing.....	113

TABLE NO.	TITLE	PAGE
8.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents according to their use and non use of equipment and appliances in the area of management of resources.....	116
9.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents according to their use and non use of equipment and appliances in the area of child development and family relations.....	117
10.	Significant association between use of equipment and appliances in homemaking and selected personal characteristics of the respondents.....	121
11.	Frequency and percentage distribution of employed women indicating the 'equipment-centred' reasons for not using modern equipment and appliances in homemaking.....	126
12.	Frequency and percentage distribution of employed women indicating the 'person-centred' reasons for not using modern equipment and appliances in homemaking.....	128
13.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents according to their modernity in homemaking indicating their reasons for not using modern equipment and appliances in homemaking.....	130

TABLE NO.	TITLE	PAGE
14.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents according to their occupational class indicating their reasons for not using modern equipment and appliances.....	135
15.	Frequency and percentage distribution of employed women indicating the facilities available at home for better homemaking.....	140
16.	Significant association between the facilities available at home and the personal and demographic characteristics of the respondents and their husbands.....	143
17.	Attitude of the respondents towards working women.....	149
18.	Frequency and percentage distribution of employed women's levels of attitude.....	153
19.	Extent of favourableness of attitude towards working women according to traditional and moderately modern families.....	155
20.	Extent of favourableness of attitude towards working women according to selected personal variables of the respondents.....	156

TABLE NO.	TITLE	PAGE
21.	Significant correlations between attitude of employed women and the selected attributes of employed women.....	160
22.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents facing problems in carrying out responsibility of household work.....	164
23.	Frequency and percentage distribution of the respondents facing problems with paid help.....	166
24.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents facing problems due to undue rigidity of family members.....	169
25.	Frequency and percentage distribution of the respondents facing problem with community facilities and services.....	172
26.	Frequency and percentage distribution of respondents indicating their personal problems...	174
27.	Significant association between the problems faced by the employed women and facilities available at home and attitude of employed women towards working women.....	178
28.	Significant association between problems of employed women and their personal characteristics.....	180