

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words have never expressed human sentiments but they are influential means to do so, any accomplishment requires the effort of many people and this work is not different. It gives me immense pleasure to express my heartfelt thanks to all those who have directly or indirectly contributed to make this work a success. I will always be grateful to the God for enabling me to do whatever I could in all these years towards completion of this work.

With all humility and reverence, I sincerely express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to my esteemed guide Dr. (Ms.) Rajshree C. Mashru, Senior Lecturer, Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance, Pharmacy Department, for her invaluable guidance, expert suggestions, immense patience and kindness to guide and supervise my work through out the course. She has been a constant source of inspiring guidance, thought provoking ideas, and this dissertation is a result of her rational and meaningful thinking.

Financial support from All India Council of Technical Education in terms of National Doctoral Fellowship, New Delhi, India is gratefully acknowledged.

I wish my sincere thanks to Prof. A N Misra, Professor and Head of the Pharmacy Department, and to Prof. M. R. Yadav, Coordinator, G. H. Patel Building, Pharmacy Department for extending all the facilities during the present study.

No words can express my gratefulness to Dr. R. S. R. Murthy, Professor of Pharmaceutics; Dr. S. H. Mishra, Professor of Pharmacognosy; Dr. R. Balraman, Professor of Pharmacology; Dr. (Mrs.) K. K. Sawant, Reader of Pharmaceutics; Dr. (Mrs.) S. J. Rajput, Reader, Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance, Dr. (Mrs.) Vandana Patel for their valuable support during the research work.

I would like to place on my record, my special thanks to Mr. Mayur Sankalia with whom I discussed the points of direct relevance and interest. During the course to study he was just like my elder brother and always helpful to me. The discussions of most theoretical aspects and particularly his help in advanced computer skills made me learn so many things. I express my heartfelt thanks to him for his generous help, co-operation and keen interest in work.

A note of this kind cannot end without a word of appreciation and thankfulness to my colleagues Vijay Sutariya, Jolly Sankalia, Punit Shah, Ashutosh Pathak, Samir Patel, Advait Dixit, Nagraj Sir, Arti Thakkar and all the Pharma and nonpharma Dr. V. S. Hall residents for their cheerful company, many helpful discussions and affection during the work. I am also grateful to all my coworkers in Pharmacy Department and other everyone who have helped me in some way other in the fulfillment of this work.

I would like to give a special note of attention for my dear friends Pramod Yedurkar, Devendra Puntambekar and Punit Shah for their pleasant company and gesture of true friendship.

Adequate words are not found to express my gratitude for the love, encouragement and help rendered to me by my Parents for their enormous patience they put forth during my study. It was moral support and constant motivation by my beloved father which encouraged me in completing my research work successfully.

Above all, I thank God for giving me the strength, perseverance and opportunity to carry out this work to the best of my ability.

Finally it is inevitable in this project, that omissions, occasional errors and lapses in the accuracy of interpretations might have escaped detection. I hope that any mistakes are minor and minimum and I accept the full and exclusive responsibility for them.
