

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My sincere gratitude and thanks are due to my guide Dr. (Mrs.) P. M. Buch for her constant guidance and encouragement.

I am grateful to my government, Government of Peoples' Republic of Bangladesh and Government of India for providing scholarship, deputation and study facilities to pursue my doctoral studies.

I would like to express my thanks to Prof. M. S. Yadav, Prof. D. B. Desai and Prof. P. K. Dongre of Faculty of Education and Psychology, M. S. University of Baroda, for providing academic and administrative support during my study period. My thanks are due to Dr. R. Govinda and other scholars at Centre of Advanced Study in Education, MSU, Baroda, whose academic reactions at various stages of my investigation have helped me a lot.

My thanks are due to Mrs. S. S. Padhya, the librarian CASE, for taking interest and extending her help and to Mr. K. A. Patel for typing the report of the study.

I am thankful to the Principals and Colleagues of the sampled colleges who assisted me in collecting the data and thus encouraged me to carry out the research. My best wishes are to the students for their cooperation in furnishing the necessary data for the study.

My respects are due to my revered parents, family members and friends whose cooperation and moral support constantly encouraged me to complete my work in time.

Words fail to express my feelings for daughters Surovi and Ima, along with Nilu-my wife, whose constant inspiration has proved to be the backbone in my entire endeavour, when miles away from them.
