

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I sincerely express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Satish Patel, a fatherly figure, for his continuous support, advice, useful critiques and valuable guidance. I thank him for giving me the freedom to choose my research topic and for his patience. I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to accompany him on multiple field trips in other sedimentary basins as well. I also thank him for his encouragement to visit them, and sharing all his profound field knowledge and experience. We walked miles together, and I wish our association never comes to an end...

I am thankful to the Head department of Geology, Prof. Atul Joshi and Prof. L. S. Chamyal (former head) for providing infrastructural facilities. Special thanks to Prof. Dhananjay Sant for the literature help and stimulated discussions which helped me develop a thought process to carry out scientific work. I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Jaquelin Joseph and Jehova Darngawn who were my collaborators, mentor and friends. I thank them for their valuable inputs and suggestions. I thank them for accompanying me several times to the field and would forever cherish all the hilarious field trip memories.

I also take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Prof. Ashok Sahni, Dr. Srinivas Viladkar, Prof. Manoj Limaye, and Prof. Bhushan Deota for their support and constant encouragement. Thanks are due to the faculty members, Hansa Mehta Library, students of the department, technical and administrative staff of The M. S. University of Baroda, in particular Mohammed Hussain Vohra for preparing the thin-sections, Sanjay Makwana, and Dinesh Rana who in one way or the other helped me. Special thanks to Mrs. Kishori Karnik and Mr. Milind Nandedkar for extended help during the faculty and head office visits.

I express my gratitude to the Department of Science and Technology for the financial support and giving me the opportunity to pursue the research work. Part of this research work has been improved by the critical comments and suggestions of the reviewers of my publications especially Aram Bayet-Goll, Alfred Uchman, Annalisa Farretti, and Ian Somerville. I also thank Dr. Alfred Uchman and Dr. Eduardo Mayoral for their suggestions in identifying few trace fossils.

I am thankful to Vishal Verma, Nishi, Nirav, Arun, Jyoti, Kruti, Lukman, Payal, Jignesh, Garima, Aron, Kishan, and Prachi for field assistance, and to Dr. Alpa Sridhar and Dr. Rachna Raj for providing a conveniently equipped room and conducive working environment during my research work. I am also thankful to Bhupendra Tauk, Kamal Kishor Nayak, Mahendra Sutariya, and Shivani Prajapati from ONGC, Asit Kumar Guha, and to Dr. Kantimati Kulkarni for providing me literature help.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my family, friends, and relatives for their continued love, support, sacrifices, and encouragement. In particular, my father, Dilip Shitole; mother, Lata Shitole, and my husband, Dr. Udaysinh Bhosale, whom I heavily relied on. Adding to it, I thank Vihaan, Aditi, my mother- and father-in-law, Savita Tai, Kunal Daji, Abhay Dada, Shradhha jiji, Rushikesh, Vrushali, Jaie, Ved, Yuva, Late Jagdish Rajeshirke for always motivating me, my first teacher Priyanka Mohite, and Aarti Khanvilkar who took pride in my work and achievements, and my friends- Nimisha, Gargi, Manish, Niraj, Balaji, and Kushal who were always enthusiastic to stand by my side.

Above all, I offer my sincere prayers to Shree Gajanan Maharaj (Shegaon), Shree Vasudevenand Saraswati (Garudeshwar), and Shree Tajuddin Baba (Nagpur), who were a pillar of support.

Thank you, everyone, for everything
