	- Contents -
-	PART I : INTRODUCTORY	Page
1.0	Nature of Study :	1- 8
	1.1 Importance of the field of research	. 1
	1.2 Objectives of study	3
	1.3 Approach and sources of information	4
	1.4 Broad framework of study	7
2.0	Industrial Background :	9-29
	2.1 Place of film industry in the national economy	. 9
	2.2 Salient features of industry	14
۱	2.3 Industrial structure and organisati	on 17
	2.4 Institutional evolution	21
	2.5 Growth of industry :	24
-	Trends in film production Development of distribution and exhibition Major centres of film industry	` ₂ 4
`	PART II : ANALYSIS AND EVALUATION O	F_wages
3.0	Evolution of Existing Wage Structure :	31-42
J.	3.1 Unilateral decisions of employers and individual bargaining	32
	3.2 Collective bargaining	33
	3.3 Adjudication machinery	37
	3.4 Statutory machinery	. 39
	3.5 Unilateral decisions by employees	40
4.0	Nature and Components of Wage Structure :	43-62
	4.1 Basic wages and dearness allowance	43
	4.2 Monetary benefits :	45
	Overtime payments Miscellaneous allowances

		(v)
	4.3	Fringe benefits :	49
,		Holidays with pay and leave facilities Bonus	,
		Social insurance benefits Severance payments	,
	4.4	Comparative wage structures	54
	•	Wage structure of film industry at Madras and Calcutta Wage structure of other industries in Bombay	,
	4,5	Conclusions	61
5.0	Occupationa	1 Structure and Job Evaluation :	63- 83
	5.1	Occupational structure	63
	5.2	Job descriptions	66
	. 5.3	Artistic and technical excellence	68
	5.4	Job evaluation :	72
		The method and its limitations Application and procedure adopted Results of job evaluation
	5.5	Classification of occupations	81
6,0	Analysis an	d Evaluation of Existing Wage Levels :	89-114
	6 ₁ 1	Sector-wise wage analysis	90
	6.2	Occupational wage analysis	96
•	6.3	Unit-wise wage analysis	104
	6.4	Evaluation of occupational wages	108
7.0	Comparative	Study of Wage Levels :	115-135
~	7.1	Money wage levels in film industry at Madras and Calcutta	116
 ,	7,2	Money wage levels in other industries in Bombay	119
~	7.3	Trends in real wages in film industry in Bombay	125
	7.4	Real wages in film industry at Madras and Calcutta	132

.

•

`

in Bombay 8.0 Nature of Wage Levels in Film Industry 8.1 Areas of relatively low wage levels 8.2 Comparative behaviour of real wages 8.3 Weaknesses in the relative wage 8.4 Deficiencies in the relative wage levels 8.4 Deficiencies in the existing wage levels 9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film 148 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 164 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 165 165 165 165 165 165 165 165	3		(V1)
8.1 Areas of relatively low wage levels 136 8.2 Comparative behaviour of real wages 139 8.3 Weaknesses in the relative wage 140 8.4 Deficiencies in the existing wage levels 141 9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 143-163 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 143 Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background 9.2 Industrial relations in industries 140 Industrial relations pattern of film 140 Industry in Bombay 140 Industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 163-187 10.1 Rensons for low wage level 163 11 High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers 172 Slow growth of industry 172 174	- v v	7.5		133
8.2 Comparative behaviour of real wages 136 8.3 Weaknesses in the relative wage structure 140 8.4 Deficiencies in the existing wage levels 141 9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 143-161 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 143 9.2 Industrial Relations in industry 143 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay 1147 Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay 1148 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 164 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 1164 payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 172 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance 174	8.0 Natu	re of Wa	age Levels in Film Industry	136-142
 8.3 Weaknesses in the relative wage structure 8.4 Deficiencies in the existing wage levels 9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 143-161 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 9.2 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film industries 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance 	•	8.1	Areas of relatively low wage levels	136
structure 8.4 Deficiencies in the existing wage levels [41] 9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 143-163 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry [43] Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background [47] Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations [164] PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 10.1 Reasons for low wage level [165] High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages [172] Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		8.2	Comparative behaviour of real wages	139
9.0 Wages and Industrial Relations : 143-163 9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 143 Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industry in Bombay Industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE MO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Waak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance				14(
9.1 Trade unionism in film industry 143 Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay 147 Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay 147 Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay 147 Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay 147 Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 154 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 163.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 164.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 165.2 Slow growth of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		8.4	Deficiencies in the existing wage levels	s 1 4]
Features of trade unionism 9.2 Industrial relations background 147 Industrial relations in industries in Bombay 110 Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay 110 Industrial relations in film industry in Bombay 110 Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 154 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 165 Methy finance 100-3 sectoral growth Lock of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance	9.0 Wage	s and II	ndustrial Relations :	143-16]
 9.2 Industrial relations background [147] Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations [154] PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE MO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : [163-187] 10.1 Reasons for low wage level [163] 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level [163] 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level [163] 163-187 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages [172] Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance 		. 9,1	Trade unionism in film industry	143
Industrial relations in industries in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE MO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance			Features of trade unionism
in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film industry in Madras and Calcutta 9.3 Impact of wages on industrial relations 154 PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE MO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 M High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		9.2	Industrial relations background	147
PART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCTURE NO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 Migh payments to top artistes 163 Costly finance 10-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		•••	in Bombay Industrial relations pattern of film industry in Bombay Industrial relations in film	•
MO.0 Factors Affecting Wage Levels : 163-187 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 163-187 163 163 163 164 163 165 163 165 163 165 163 165 163 166 164 165 164 166 164 165 165 166		9.3	Impact of wages on industrial relations	154
 10.1 Reasons for low wage level 163 163 164 165 165 165 166 166 166 166 166 166 167 168 168 169 169<td>. .</td><td>. P</td><td>ART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCT</td><td>TURE</td>	. .	. P	ART III : TOWARDS A RATIONAL WAGE STRUCT	TURE
 High payments to top artistes Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance 	10.0 Fac	tors Afi	Cecting Wage Levels :	163-187
Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning Nature of production units 10.2 Causes of fall in real wages 172 Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		10.1	Reasons for low wage level	163
Slow growth of industry Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	32	Costly finance Lop-sided sectoral growth Lack of planning	u,
Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance		10.2	Causes of fall in real wages	172
•			Weak organisation of workers Absence of state regulation Relatively low sectoral importance
			* •

(vi)

L'
- And a state of the state of t	(vii)
10.3	Elements responsible for dist pp ted relative occupational wages :	180
	Creative nature of work Peculiarities of employment Occupational anomalies	.
10.4	Conclusions	186
11.0 Formulation	n of a Rational Wage Structure :	188-213
11.1	Requirements of a rational wage structure	188
11.2	Proposals for increasing the absolute wage level	189
	Stabilisation of the financial base of industry
	Improvement in the organisation and methods of work. Regulation of producers.
11.3	Suggestions for raising the real wage level :	199
	Improvement in organisation of trade unions Machinary for determination and revision of wages Better utilisation of leisure Wage incentives	·
11.4	Measures for rationalising wage differentials	208
	Regulation of employment and training Standardization of occupations	· -
11.5	Conclusions	213
12.0 Wages, Emp	loyment and Growth of Film Industry	214-233
12.1	Theoretical frame-work	215
12.2	Impact of wages on employment and growth :	217
	Analysis of wages Wages and employment Wages, employment and growth of industr	' Y
12.3	Conclusions	232

(viii)

. . . .

	-	N N
13.0	Summary of	Conclusions and Suggestions	234-243
	13.1	Nature of wage structure	234
	13.2	Results of wage analysis	235
	13.3	Deficiencies in wage levels	237
• •	13.4	Reasons for short-comings in wage levels	237
·	13,5	Integrated scheme for a rational wage structure	239
	13.6	Impact of wages on industrial relations, employment and growth of film industry	240
	13.7	A perspective	242
	Appendices		244-324
	1	Occupational structure of film industry	245
	2	Dictionary of occupational titles in the film production industry	257
	3	Job evaluation questionnaire	300
	4 4;	Statistical tables on occupational wages	304
	Bibliograph	7	311

•

.

.

,

,