

APPENDIX - IV

An attitude scale for measuring teachers' attitude towards their profession

Check any three of the following statements which express more or less adequately your views about your profession.

Sr.No.	Statements	Scale Value
1.	This profession secures self-realisation.	7.0
2.	This profession helps one to keep his knowledge up-to-date.	8.5
3.	This profession gives no opportunity for individual expression.	3.00
4.	This profession provides sufficient openings for growth and learning new things.	9.0
5.	This profession has more demerits than merits.	3.6
6.	Only idlers would prefer this profession.	2.5
7.	This profession satisfies the basic instincts of men.	2.1
8.	I am only slightly interested in this profes- sion.	5.00
9.	This is a normal profession.	6.4
10.	This profession satisfies one's creative instinct.	7.5
11.	This is an interesting profession.	9.4
12.	In this profession, the heart and the head both develop simultaneously.	8.1
13.	This is a tolerable profession.	6.00

contd....

Sr. No.	Statements	Scale value
14.	There is no recognition of one's work in this profession.	4.4
15.	I am prepared to exchange my profession with any of the humblest jobs.	1.5
16.	Only a fool will choose to join this profession.	1.1
17.	I hate this profession.	0.5
18.	This profession demands service without sufficient rewards.	4.0
19.	Every sane individual should select this profession .	10.7
20.	As compared with other professions, this profession is sacred.	10.0
21.	I am indifferent to the merits or the otherwise of this profession.	5.5
22.	This profession is one of the noblest professions.	10.3