

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to record my affectionate appreciation, deepest sense of regard and gratitude to Dr. E.G.Macwan, Reader in Department of Accounting and Financial Management, Faculty of Commerce, The M.S.University of Baroda, under whose able guidance and supervision, this study has been carried out. He has been a source of inspiration and encouragement all the way through my work and without his co-operation and endeavour the study would not have been possible.

I am grateful to Prof. M.D.Mohite, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Prof. J.R.Khedkar, Head, Department of Accounting and Financial Management. I am thankful to my colleagues in the Department of Accounting and Financial Management for helping me in the completion of this project. My special thanks are to Dr. Samir Joshi, Dr. Umesh Dangerwala and Dr. Alok B. Shah for the co-operation extended and encouragement provided by them in completing this thesis.

I am thankful to the Financial Executives of the Multinational pharmaceutical companies who were generous enough to supply the Annual reports. I am grateful to Shri R.M.Kapadia Director, Alembic Chemicals and his staff for pointing out the sources of related information regarding the industry during the course of my study. I express my thanks to Dr. Prashant Kirkire, Research Director, ORG-MARG and staff members of the center to allow me to use and access the computer software for getting me the information related to the selected multinational pharmaceutical companies. I sincerely thank Dr. P.G.K.Murthy for providing valuable suggestions.

I heartily wish to extend my deep sense of gratitude to Mrs. Utpala Mehta for clarifying my ideas during the course of the study.

My special thanks are also due to Mrs. Macwan and all family members for their personal affection and co-operation during the course of study.

I owe great debt to my two sisters and other family members without whose moral boost, co-operation and encouragement this work would not reached the stage of completion.

I owe special acknowledgement and thanks to Manish and Rajesh for their useful and timely help. I express my scincere thanks to all my relatives, friends and acquaintances for helping me in one way or the other in the present endeavour.

No words can sufficiently convey my debt of appreciation to my parents for generating in me a continuing interest in higher studies. I am indebted to my wife Nehal whose patience support understanding and love helped this effort to fruition.

I owe to my son Jitesh who made to make a great sacrifice because of my pre-occupation with this research work.

Finally I express my scincere appreciation to Mr. Bhagwanbhai, for the excellent computerized printing and elegant get up of the present thesis.
