

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have often felt that an acknowledgement is too personal a thing to be put on to the pages of a thesis. Yet, here I am, registering my appreciation of all the people who have sincerely blessed my life; it gives me happiness and contentment. There are a lot of people to whom I owe a special thanks - To my mother who enriched my life with her homespun wisdom and love for literature; to my father who still dreams for me and for just being there, whenever I needed his help. Also, to my husband, who is my dearest friend, for the invaluable help he rendered to me in the preparation of this work.

It is a pleasure to record my obligations to Prof. Bharati Parikh, Department of English, M. S. University, who read the draft of the thesis with meticulous care and gave constructive suggestions, throughout the course of this study. Finally, a word of thanks to all friends and well-wishers for their constant support and encouragement.

K. B. BINDU