

A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T

The author wishes to express his deep sense of gratitude to Professor S.S. Merh, FNA, FASc, for his guidance and constant encouragement. He will always very fondly cherish the love and affection bestowed on him by Professor Merh, which have been a great source of inspiration to him throughout his studies. Without his kind help and supervision, it would not have been possible for the author to take up this study and to prepare this thesis.

He is equally grateful to Prof. N.M. Vashi, Head, Dept. of Geology, M.S.U.Baroda, for providing all facilities available in the department, and giving encouragement at all stages of the study.

He also gratefully acknowledges the valuable help rendered by Dr. P.P. Patel, for providing guidance during the field and for critically discussing various topics. The author is thankful to Dr. S.J. Desai, for his sustained help.

The author is indebted to Dr.L.S. Chamyal and Shri K.C. Tiwari, who helped at all stages in the study. These two friends not only actively assisted the author in the research work and in the preparation of this thesis, but they also provided strong moral and emotional support.

The author wishes to thank Dr. S.P.H.Sychanthavong for SEM photography and also for illuminating discussions. Grateful thanks are also due to Dr. K.F. Patel, for His help in chemical analyses.

The author would be failing in his duty if he does not acknowledge the variety of help which he received from all the staff members and research scholars of the department.

The author wishes to express his gratefulness to Dr. H.M. Siddiqui, Director, National Institute of Oceanography, Goa, for his kind suggestions and guidance. Help received from Shri K.H. Vora and Dr. N.H.Hashmi of the Institute is also gratefully acknowledged.

The author owes a special gratitude to Prof.B.L.K. Somiyajulu, Dr. K.K.Pant, Dr.M.Bhaskaran, Dr.Kailash Dilli and Shri V.G.Shah of Physical Research Laboratory, Ahmedabad, for permitting the author to work at their laboratory for X-ray analyses and for fruitful discussions.

The author is highly indebted to Director, R.S.I.C., I.I.T., Bombay for giving permission to carryout X-ray analyses, and Prof. B.K.Sahu and Prof.R.K.Banerjee, Dept. of Earth Sciences, I.I.T. Bombay, for rendering laboratory facilities and for valuable suggestions.

He is grateful to Dr.S.R.Nayak and Shaikh Mustak Ahmad for assistance in remote sensing studies.

The author also wishes to thank Prof.Y.K.Agarwal, Dr.(Ms) Sobhana Menon and Research Scholars of the Dept.of Pharmacy and Mr. Ajay Shah, Dept.of Chemistry, M.S.U.Baroda, for their kind help in the chemical analyses of water samples.

It is a pleasure to express the gratitude of the author to Prof.K.B.Powar, Vice-Chancellor, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and Shri K.L.N. Rao, General Manager, Exploration Division, O.N.G.C., Baroda, for giving constructive suggestions on the subject matter of this thesis.

Thanks are also due to Shri J.M. Joshipara, Head Light Keeper, Piram Light House and Shri Patel, Head Light Keeper, Ghogha Light House, Ghogha, for providing help during field work at Piram Island.

Help received from his friends Shri V.N.Joshi, Shri R.N. Chowdhary, Shri Baldev Singh, Shri Varinder Jamwal, Shri G.S.Chowdhary and Shri S.Roy, are duly acknowledged.

His thanks also go to Shri R.K. Parmar, Mrs.H.M. Thite, Shri A.A.Dave and Shri M.N.Patel, for their secretarial help. Thanks are also due to Shri B.M. Chauhan, who assisted him in photographic work and Mrs. R. Titus and Miss Pritti Patel for neatly typing the thesis. Grateful thanks are due to Mr. C.P.Mistry for helping the author in the preparation of various diagrams and maps.

The Ministry of Human Resources Development, Govt. of India, for financial assistance and the Ministry of Education, Govt. of Bangladesh, for necessary permission, are gratefully acknowledged.

Lastly, the author wishes to place on record his gratefulness to his grandparent, parents, brother and sisters who sacrificed their comfort by providing him
the encouragement and necessary facilities.
