

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author takes this opportunity to express his deep sense of gratitude to Prof. S.S. Merh under whose supervision and guidance this investigation was conducted. But for his all round encouragement and active assistance, the author would not have been able to complete this study. His thanks are also due to Prof. I.C. Pande, who introduced the author to the area, gave constant encouragement and critically discussed his various problems from time to time. The author is indebted to his colleagues Shri A.N. Shah and Shri S.J. Desai for assisting him in many ways in the course of his field and laboratory investigations. He is equally thankful to Shri M.P. Patel and Shri B.M. Chauhan for the help given to him while preparing the thesis.

The author is grateful to Shri B.D. Pant (of Pilkholi) and Shri H.D. Tiwari (of Himalaya Hotel, Ranikhet) who were kind and generous enough to offer accomodation, give other facilities and help during his fieldwork.

Lastly the author wishes to thank Shri V.F. Bhavsar who very kindly agreed to type the thesis and made an excellent job of it.
