

List of Tables and Figures

Tables

Table 1: Degree of Use of Three Ethics: Means and Main Effects.....	50
Table 2: Majority Use of Types of Reasons (Percent).....	52
Table 3: Degree of Use of Three Ethics: Means and Main Effects.....	60
Table 4: Adolescent Responses Involving Virtues within the Ethic of Autonomy	62
Table 5: A Comparison of the Types of Reasons Used in Childhood and Adolescence.....	65
Table 6: Responses of Men and Women as Equal, Different and Equal-but-Different.....	78
Table 7: Forms of Suffering in Adult's Moral Reasoning	98

Figures

Figure 1. The Cultural-Developmental Template of Moral Reasoning	18
Figure 2. Conceptual Framework for the Dissertation.....	32
Figure 3. Hypothesized Expression of the Template among Indian Participants in Middle Childhood and Early Adolescence.....	34
Figure 4. Sample Distribution for Study 1.....	35
Figure 5. Process of Collaborative and Iterative Translation.....	39
Figure 6. Hypothesized Expression of the Template among Indian Participants in Childhood and Adolescence.....	42
Figure 7. Sample Distribution for Study 2.....	43
Figure 8. Resultant Expression of the Template among Indian Participants in Middle Childhood and Early Adolescence.....	51
Figure 9. Resultant Expression of the Template among Indian Participants in Childhood and Adolescence.....	61
Figure 10. Types of Moral Reasons Used by Adolescents across the Three Ethics.....	62
Figure 11 Selfhood and Perceptions of God and Bad Qualities.....	77
Figure 12. Three Aspects of Grihastha Dharma as Perceived by Adult Participants	82

Figure 13. Beliefs about God's Existence among Indian Adults	87
Figure 14. Characteristics, Form(s) and Gender(s) Attributed to God	91
Figure 15. Control, Influence and the Many Roles of God for Human Life.....	93
Figure 16. The Interface of the Self, Mind and Shraddhā	97
Figure 17. Beliefs about Karma and Suffering.....	102
Figure 18. Resultant Template for the Use of the Three Ethics across Childhood and Adolescence in India.....	106
Figure 19. Selfhood in the Indian Moral Worldview: An Intersection of the Three Ethics.....	108