

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research is a result of uncountable encouragements and efforts extended by many. First and foremost, I would like to thank my research guide, Dr (Mrs). Preeti Panwani, for providing me with hypothetical approaches. I am much indebted to her for the enthusiastic advices and support that she extended to make this thesis a complete one. It is her encouragement and her thrust in me that has inspired me to attain the best. I am deeply indebted to her.

I am thankful to Dr. O. Kumar Singh (Retired Superintendent), S. Bhayga Singh (Retired Superintendent), S. Ruponban Singh (Retired Superintendent) and Dr. L. Indrani Devi (Retired Superintendent) of the State Archaeology, Manipur, who introduced and enriched the subject matter to me. I am deeply thankful that they allowed me to access the research materials. An appreciative effort has been extended by Gunindro Singh (Surveyor) and the other staffs of the State Archaeology, Office Manipur.

I would also like to thank Dr. L. Kunjewori Devi, Assistant Professor Department of History, Manipur University for her instructive advices and theoretical approaches toward the subject.

I am thankful to Dr. Dhanapati Devi (Curator), Saya Devi (Assistant Curator), S. Bineta Devi (Assistant Curator) and other staffs of the State Museum, Polo Ground, Manipur for their appreciative support.

I am grateful to Dr. Bilasini Devi, Curator and L. Ratna Devi, Assistant Curator of the Museum, Manipur University for their encouragement and help.

I express my gratitude to Professor K. Krishnan, Head, Department of Archaeology & Ancient History for his constant support and encouragement that brought out the paths to take this research journey.

I am also thankful to Dr. Khuldeep Bhan, Dr. Ajitprasad, Dr. Sushmit Sen and Pratap Chandram for they have introduced me to the subject.
