

A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T S

It gives me pleasure to express my heartfelt indebtedness to my guide Dr. Ram Nandan Prasad Sinha, Professor and Head, Department of Geography, Faculty of Science, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for his stimulating, invaluable and benevolent help, creative suggestions and timely advice through all the stages of this work. But for his help and guidance it would not have been possible for me to complete the present work.

I am also indebted to the authorities of the M.S.University, Baroda for awarding me the UGC Research Fellowship and providing all the required facilities for carrying out the work.

My thanks are also due to all the members of teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Geography, the M.S.University of Baroda for extending me various types of help as and when needed.

I am very much thankful to all the staff members of the Survey Research and Training Centre, New Delhi for providing an opportunity to acquire requisite expertise in Survey Research in Rural Areas.

I must thank Dr. Mrs. M. N. Shah, Professor in the Department of Economics, and Dr. C. N. Daftuar, Reader in the Department of Psychology, the M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda who have also been extremely kind to me in providing considerable stimuli to my thoughts with nice suggestions and advice.

My thanks also go to the authors of various books, reports, articles, etc. which I have read and used and cited in the Bibliography.

My deep appreciation and thanks go to Mr. Vijoy Kumar 'Diwakar', my native neighbour for assisting me and sharing my difficulties during the field survey and data collection.

My very special thanks are due to Miss Archana Rathore and Misses Meena, Leela and Bhavana Patel who helped a lot in the preliminary stages of data processing.

I am greatly obliged to each and every member of my family, especially to my parents and elder brother who had to suffer the ordeal of various kinds to see that I successfully complete my education.

I also thank Mr. A. V. Prajapati, the typist, for typing the manuscript with interest and care.
